DEFAULTER CAUGHT AFTER A LONG CHASE

RUSSIAN WARSHIPS ARRIVE AT PORT SAID

FRANK J. MOFFITT SERENELY ANSWERS DEATH'S CALL

Peaceful Close of a Picturesque and Successful Career Full of Stirring Incident and Vicissitude---Passing Away of a Remarkable and Forceful Personality Prominent in This Community for Many Years---A Devoted Husband, Brother and Friend.

Former Senator Frank J Moffitt is dead He passed away at 6 25 this morning in the family residence, 1337 Filbert street His death was not unexpected as he had been battling for weeks against the sapping attack of an insidious organic disease His life was practically despaired of several days ago though the physicians relaxed no effort in his behalf and halted at no remedy that offered hope of relief Two days ago he rallied somewhat and his friends were cheered with a brief hope that recovery was possible The e hopes proved delusive however, for he began to sink rapidly after six o clock yesterday evening and it speedily developed that he was passing into the shadow

He was conscious at intervals till 10 o'clock and recognized his wife sisters and faithful domestics as they gathered around his bedside He knew that his end was approaching and signified that he was fully prepared to die Ever since he was taken down with his last illness, about a month ago he has been impressed with a feeling that he would not recover So he arranged his business affairs with the method and precision that distinguished him through life counseled with his relatives and friends and assured them that he was prepared to meet death with courage and resignation He embraced the consolations of religion and announced himself as ready to meet the final judgment confident that he would be weighed according to his deserts No man ever took a more rational view of death or felt a deeper sense of responsibility to the Almighty His strong clear mind anchored his soul to faith and conscience and he passed away at peace with himself and all mankind

During his last days he exhibited a touching appreciation of the solicitude of the many friends who came to cheer and assure him that their hearts were with him in his struggle against disease All past enmities and resentments dropped away from him and he sent messages of amity and forgiveness to a few who had been estranged from him in life Messages came from those he had counted as enemies assuring him of their sympathy and wishes for his recovery These rejoiced him exceedingly and he closed his eyes without a touch of bitterness toward any human being on earth

He will be buried beside his father and mother in St Mary s Cemetery next Saturday The funeral will be from the family residence corner of Filbert and Eighteenth streets at 9 30 in the morning and from St Francis de Sales Church San Pablo avenue and Grove street at 10 o clock A solemn requiem mass will be celebrated for the repose of his soul

Francis James Moffitt was probably the most striking individuality ever developed in this city He has been a forceful and commanding figure in the community ever since his earliest manhood His intellectual vigor and activity were phenomenal his resource extraordinary, his knowledge of men marvelous His power over the minds of others was wonderful His power of projecting himself into the motives and mental processes of others has rarely been equalled With a frankness almost brutal he coupled a warmness of heart, a loyalty to friends and a generosity rarely to be found He was indeed a remarkable man, an unusual

THE LATE FRANK J. MOFFITT

Senator Moffitt was born in Oakland on the 17th day of October 1859 consequently had just entered his 46th year when he died He was of mixed Irish and Scotch ancestry and inherited some of the temperamental peculiarities of both races His temper was hot and his impulses explosive but his judgment was cool and his mind calculating—contradictions of character that constantly misled people and which caused him to be much misunderstood He did innumerable acts of kindness and generosity yet to protect his soft heart from attacks he could not resist he affected a cynicism he did not feel and an indifference that was wholly foreign to his nature He was clannish in his fidelity to his kindred To his sisters he was the truest and tenderest of brothers

He was the eldest son and oldest child of James Moffitt a pioneer resident of Oakland and at one time Chief Engineer of the city fire department He was given a grammar school education in the public schools and while yet a his teens began to do for himself and act a man s part in the world He began to take an active part in politics before he was a voter and at the age of 2? was elected to the Assembly as a Democrat in a Republican district Two years later in 1886, he was elected to the State Senate and became a leader of that body Until he ceased to take an active part in politics he was a delegate to every Democratic State Convention In 1892 he was a delegate to the Democratic National Convention For some years he served as a member of the State Forestry Commission He caused the tree standing in Independence Square to be planted there

When a very young man he entered journalism He bought the Oakland Independent, now the Enquirer a paper founded and edited by Dan W Gelwicks pioneer editor and Democratic leader of great force and popularity He afterward sold the Independent to Frank A Leach and subsequently bought the Oakland Times which he conducted in partnership with Henry P Squire till December 1894 Thereafter he devoted his attention principally to money-making pursuits for which he developed marked aptitude amassing in a few years a handsome fortune which he leaves to his wife and son

In 188? Mr Moffitt was married to Miss Augusta Jaffa, daughter of L Jaffa once a well-known coal merchant but, now a resident of Seattle Washington Mrs Moffitt survives him Mr Moffitt also leaves one son Jefferson G Moffitt a member of the graduating class of the Oakland High School Three brothers and four sisters survive him Harry M George Joseph Mary Margaret, Helen and Emma The sisters are unmarried

Losing his father while yet a very young man Frank Moffitt charged himself with the guardianship and protection of his brothers and sisters How well he fulfilled this self-imposed trust only his family and a few intimate friends know

During his life-time Frank Moffitt was the friend and associate of political leaders of all parties throughout the State and was on excellent terms with a number of National leaders He was a close friend of such men as Stephen M White William D English, W W Foote and Thomas J Clunie In politics he was always an ally to be sought and an antagonist to be feared Of late years he only dabbled in politics a little to oblige or assist friends He has been credited at times with an activity wholly imaginary, and sought to evade rather than engage in political manipulation

This is a brief sketch of a picturesque and successful career cut short in its prime When stricken down Mr Moffitt was getting ready for an extended tour He had amassed a competence and desired travel and recreation He had made a hurried tour of Europe, but wished to see the Old World at his leisure He read widely and assimilated knowledge quickly He had a fondness for books paintings and sculpture All artistic forms pleased him and he gratified his taste by expenditures that many would deem lavish He was exceedingly hospitable and his table was noted for the quality of its wines and the excellence of the cookery He lived the life of a generous, high-spirited man, and died with the fortitude and resignation of a brave one Peace to his ashes Many will remember him with affection

BY F. S. STRATTON

I knew Frank Moffitt probably longer than any other person outside of his family We grew up together in East Oakland, attending the old Swett Grammar School, and my recollection of him dates back for more than forty years We have always been friends, although our paths in life have been largely separated When his early environment is taken into consideration, it is remarkable to what eminence he has risen and what success he has achieved I knew his father James Moffitt, at one time chief of the fire department very well

Frank grew up as a man of great force, having a grasp and hold upon public and private affairs that was truly remarkable And this with only a grammar school education

His career in the State Senate, representing Alameda County showed him as a ruler of men He dominated the State Senate as few Senators have in the history of our politics ever dominated a like body Henry Vrooman was perhaps his only equal

While he found himself during his life in opposition to a great mass of the community nevertheless, to those who knew him well, he had characteristics and qualities which caused his friends to hold fast to him and to recognize that underneath any outward showing he had certain splendid qualifications I shall never forget the many instances of genuine generosity and charity eminating from him which came under my notice

As he acquired wealth, his first thought was of his family, of his brothers and of his sisters, and out of his means he gave them generous portions and established them in life There was nothing spectacular in this as there is in the gifts of many men of affairs, but it indicated the strong family ties which he cherished and which he acknowledged as an obligation, not to be merely borne but to be joyously assumed

Frank Moffitt was pre-eminently a man of affairs When he conferred in my office regarding the amalgamation of the Contra Costa and the Oakland water companies, he saw inevitably that the competition must cease and was one of the first to take up actively that great transaction, and he was an imporant factor in bringing it about But in these interviews wherein he asked my assistance I being unable to give it, I recognized the tremendous grasp which he had on events, and what a factor he was in controlling, not the small but the large men of our community. In fact, I might say, that no man was a better judge of other men than he He saw through the chicanery and duplicity of many and recognized the honesty and high purposes of others, all with an unerring certainty

Beyond everything he was generosity itself and always grateful to those who had ever assisted him in life As an instance, Senator Perkins some years ago was instrumental in retaining Frank's brother, Harry, in the United States Secret Service, and ever thereafter, Frank could never be persuaded, no matter under what inducement, to oppose the Senator and yet the only tie which would prevent his opposition was the favor accorded a member of his family, and that favor clearly for the good of the public service

He was singularly independent in his decisions As an example, he claimed from the Blythe estate that $5000 was due him for services rendered His contention was disputed, and $2500 in cash was offered him by way of compromise He refused the offer, abandoned the claim finally and absolutely, declining to take less than what he thought was due him Very few would have acted likewise under similar circumstances

A marked figure has passed away in our city and in our State Frank Moffitt was always in his life-time a power and a factor to be counted with I may, with propriety repeat of him what Blaine said of Douglas that in his political career, he had at times experienced extremes of popular disapproval His life had been stormy his partisanship aggressive his course often violent his political methods sometimes ruthless, but out of all this he carried with him elements of worldly success and he had through all those sterling qualitiees which might under different auspices have made him a mighty power for good and for the upbuilding in a broad sense of the community Beyond everything he scorned hypocrisy and was honest with himself He never appeared or sought to appear for that which he was not and in this particular I find much to commend

When I called upon him only three days ago I saw that his end was approaching and I was glad to tell him that out of an acquaintance lasting over forty years we had never had a personal difference, and I felt then that his latter years were his best years His character had softened and I think that as he looked down the vale of life and saw death awaiting him not far beyond and while he awaited the final summons he felt no fear but courageously came to the end of his earthly hours and died a brave man I think that he was anxious for a better esteem from his fellow citizens for much that had been laid at his door, was improperly so laid, and much that was charged against him was improperly charged

But Frank Moffitt has passed away He will be lamented by many probably by as many as any other citizen of Oakland His death will be a loss, not to his family and relatives alone, but to hundreds who saw in him certain fine qualities and great capabilities Among this number I count myself and stand among those who mourn him and who feel that in Frank Moffitt s death, a genial and true friend sleeps his last sleep

Thousands of Women Have Kidney Trouble and Never Suspect It.

Almost evrey one, from personal experience, knows that the effects of any kind of severe physical strain are felt first of all, in the small of the back—in other words, in those Vital Organs, the Kidneys. This is as true in the case of the very powerful as it is with one of less strength, and it is especially true whenever the kidneys are weak or out of order.

The Great Kidney Remedy Swamp-Root strengthens the kidneys and through them helps all the other organs.

WOMEN suffer untold misery because the nature of their disease is not always correctly understood; in many cases when doctoring, they are led to believe that womb trouble or female weakness of some sort is responsible for their ills, when in fact disordered kidneys are the chief cause of their distressing troubles.

Didn't Know I Had Kidney Trouble

I had tried so many remedies without benefit that I was about discouraged but

There is no other kidney medicine to Swamp-Root and it goes right to the spot and drives disease out of the system. It has cured me, making me stronger and better in every way, and I cheerfully recommend it to all sufferers.

WILL WORK IN CONGRESS FOR THE HARBOR

Senator Perkins and Congressman Knowland Pledge Support to Board of Trade's Water Front Committee.

The conference between the Harbor and Water Front Committee of the Board of Trade with Senator George C. Perkins and Congressman J. R. Knowland, last evening, in the rooms of the Board was of great interest to this city.

Chairman Hugh Hogan of the Harbor Committee presided and the other committeemen were all present as well as President and Directors Greeley, Tyrrell and Keller, and Messrs. A. Boeschke and E. C. Sessions.

ADVISES DEEPER CHANNEL.

James P. Taylor was the first speaker and the concensus of his talk was that during the past year very many vessels which were billed for Oakland had to be lightened in mid-steram on account of lack of depth of the harbor or channel. He thought the channel should be deepened five feet more so that there would be twenty-five feet at low water. The great need was depth and not width as the channel was now wide enough for all ships to pass that might want to come into the harbor.

SHIPPING INCREASING.

Hugh Hogan as a ship owner and large shipper, told of the increase in size of vessels during the past few years and the consequent increase of depth and the necessity for deeper water. Lumber vessel now carry a million to a million and a half feet while fifteen years ago 800,000 feet was considered a large load. He told of having a few days ago to go to the expense of lightering a vessel before it could come up the harbor.

Edson F. Adams thought the harbor should be deepened to twenty-five feet at low water.

Mr. Hogan spoke of new enterprises that had gone away on account of being unable to get sufficient depth of water for their purposes. He cited one case the past week where a party having an option on 250 feet of water-front property had countermanded orders for material for building a sea-wall until he could ascertain what the action of the Rivers and Harbors Committee would do for Oakland.

E. C. Sessions told of the work now being done on the water front including an expenditure of about $30,000 at the present time by the Pacific Improvement Company just East of Adams wharf where a large lumber firm is going to locate. He thought a depth of twenty-five feet from the bay to Brooklyn Basin was an actual necessity at the present time.

URGES A LONG CHANNEL.

H. C. Capwell, President of the Board of Trade said he was not as familiar with the matter as the members of the Harbor and Water Front Committee, but it seemed to him that the length of the channel could not be too long. He favored asking for a continuing contract so that work could be done each year until the harbor was equal to the demands made upon it.

Mr. Taylor spoke of the fact that it was only for Oakland but for San Francisco as well as their docks were now overcrowded.

A. Boschke as an engineer showed plans of what he deemed the logical improvements and favored the width of the channel the entire 800 feet between the seawalls and the depth at thirty feet.

R. Whitehead of the committee thought the time had arrived when Oakland should be considered favorably by the Congressional committee and that a good appropriation should be made, but he knew how anxious Senator Perkins was to complete the work and thought he could be trusted to attend to the matter.

CONGRESSMAN KNOWLAND'S VIEWS

Congressman Knowland said he fully realized the importance of the work and he fully agreed with previous speakers that it was depth and not width that was necessary. He said he could be counted upon to do all in his power for the improvement as requested by this body.

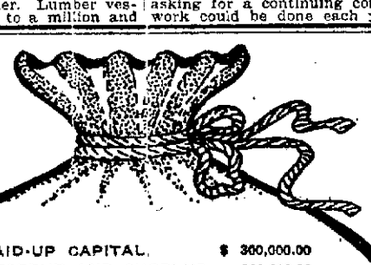

SENATOR PERKINS' IDEAS.

Senator Perkins reviewed the work that had been done and cited the fact that there was at the present time on the table in the House a bill calling for an appropriation. He told of a recent talk with other members of Congress in which they had expressed themselves as favoring Oakland Harbor appropriation and suggested that this Board of Trade get out resolutions at once stating what was necessary along the lines discusses last evening and send them to him at Washington, where he would go the first of December. He asked that the committee be fortified with all the facts possible and suggested that a committee might secure all such data within a few days.

Upon motion of Mr. Vandercook of the harbor committee a committee of three was appointed. Chairman Hogan appointed as that committee James P. Taylor, E. P. Vandercook and R. Whitehead.

The committee will probably work along the lines of proposition No. 2, which has already been considered for the appropriation of $938,000, which is the estimate of one of the best government engineers of the cost of the actual needed improvements.

The sub-committee of the harbor committee will meet later this week.

DINNERS FOR THE POOR.

Many a home where the larder was bare was made happy on this day of thanksgiving by the Volunteers of America.

Under the direction of Captain J. W. Acheson, the Volunteers have been collecting funds for several weeks with which to purchase supplies to give the poor and destitute families throughout Oakland and suburbs a Thanksgiving Day dinner.

Captain Acheson reports that the people of Oakland responded most generously to the Volunteer's call for assistance and the result is that over 200 destitute people were made happy to-day by being provided with a dinner.

The money contributed by the citizens of Oakland was used to purchase meats, fruit, pies, cake, relishes, sugar, butter, and canned goods. A sufficient amount to satisfy the hunger of several people was placed in baskets that were distributed to the needy or sick whose names and conditions were known to the Volunteers. Baskets were taken as far as Haywards and San Leandro, also trips were made to South Berkeley. Each family that received a contribution of food and is known to be deserving of help. On behalf of the Volunteers, Captain Acheson desires to thank the people of Oakland for the contributions to the cause.

PAPERS ATTACK EMPEROR

Suspension of Russia's Minister of Interior Feared.

ST. PETERSBURG, Nov. 24.—Interior Minister Sviatopolk-Mirsky went to Tasarskoe-Selo today to present the Zemstvo memorial to Emperor Nicholas. The situation is extremely delicate.

Two incidents have occurred both of which militate against the liberals and increase the difficulty of Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky's position.

Prince Mestichersky, editor of the Grach Dain, who is head of the reactionary press, this morning unmasked his batteries, attacking the interior minister in such a fashion for his liberal tendencies that Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky, for the first time since he assumed the ministry, ordered the confiscation of the issue.

In the strength of the influence behind such an attack lies the real significance of Prince Mestichersky's act.

At the same time, from the opposite direction, the Nasha Ziesn (our life) a new Radical paper, authorized by Minister Sviatopolk-Mirsky, indulged in a direct attack on the Emperor with the result that the Minister ordered the suspension of the publication.

The action of this paper is considered to be very unfortunate as it places a powerful weapon in the hands of Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky's enemies. Many of the Minister's friends are inclined now to believe that the Zemstvos went too far and have jeopardized the position of their best friend, Prince Ukhtomsky, editor of the Viedomosti, said to the Associated Press:

"The duty of all friends of a liberal regime is to uphold and sustain Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky in every possible way. His retirement would be a great misfortune."

OAKLAND LOSES A. M. GAME

SEALS AGAIN RETARD COMMUTERS IN THE PENNANT RACE.

Sad and salty were the tears that Hon. Peter Lohman wept in silence this morning as he sat on the bench and saw the Seals paw up the Idora Park diamond with his band of disappointments. Score San Francisco 2; Oakland 1.

The grand old gent of the Oakland team is fast relinquishing his grip on the pennant guy rope and the fact makes him sad.

This is no day of Thanksgiving for Lohman, he has seen his pets outplay Uncle Harris' bunch and yet get the minute end of the score.

A good crowd witnessed the before-turkey game. Graham occupied the gunner's position for the Commuters and Jimmy Whalen performed with the leather globe for H. Harris.

In the very first inning San Francisco discovered the key to Graham's puzzle box and wallop'd out three healthy bingles. Result, one run.

Then, until the last period of playing, the Seals were unable to get around the stations, Graham holding them down to a lone hit in seven innings.

In the ninth, however a single hit brought in a run and another crimp was taken in Lohman's chances.

The Commuters manufactured their lone tally in the seventh inning. In all the local lads got eight hits, but the bingles were too well scattered to make runs.

Following is the score by innings:

San Francisco	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	1	—2
Base hits	3	0	1	0	0	0	0	1	—5
Oakland	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	—1

LARGE HOUSES AT YE LIBERTY

"The Merchant of Venice" has indeed proven a most popular bill at Ye Liberty Playhouse this week for not only was the house crowded last night but again this afternoon and there is an unusually large advance sale for tonight and every one of the other performances that will be held during the remainder of the week including the usual Saturday and Sunday matinees. It has caught on and were it not for the unusually large size of the theater the S. R. O. sign would have to be displayed nightly. Such popularity can be due to but one thing, and that is excellence of productions. The theater-going public has come to expect great things from the management of Ye Liberty and their success is the result of always giving the people the very best possible in the way of entertainment. "The Merchant of Venice" is one of the best things ever offered to the patrons of Ye Liberty. There will be the usual Saturday matinee at popular prices.

COUPLE SECRETLY MARRIED

Burt Fraser and Evelyn Sloan Announce Their Wedding.

Without notifying friends or relatives Burton R. Fraser and Evelyn G. Sloan, both well known West Oakland young people, quietly went away last evening and were married. They are spending their Thanksgiving out of the ken of their surprised relatives. A telegram received at the Sloan home at 1371 Eighth street about 10 o'clock last night from San Francisco reads:

"We are married. Bert and Gert."

This was the first intimation given to the family of the cause for the young bride's absence.

The groom was formerly deputy under Assessor Henry P. Dalton and is the son of Robert Fraser, who owns considerable realty in Wood street. He is in partnership with his brother, George P. Fraser, and together they conduct a cigar store at 1514 Seventh street.

In choosing a wife he followed the lead of his brother and married the sister of his brother's wife.

Being thus related to the family by marriage nothing was thought of his being a good deal in the society of his pretty sister-in-law, and a marriage was the last thing suspected.

Evelyn G. Sloan, known among her friends as Gertie, is the third of four pretty sisters, all of whom are now married. The eldest married William Moore of Emeryville; the second married George P. Fraser, while the youngest, Mabel, recently was married to Deputy Sheriff Harry Clark.

Tom and William Sloan, their brothers, are popular engineers in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company. Both families have lived in West Oakland many years and the children have been reared together.

After the first surprise has passed it is believed the young people will be given a hearty welcome by their relatives.

TO BRING KINIRY BACK.

CHIEF OF POLICE LEAVES FOR LOS ANGELES TO GET ALLEGED MURDERER.

Chief of Police Hodgkins left last night for Los Angeles where he will take into custody, David Kinjry, the burglar, who is alleged to have killed Policeman James Smith in this city a year ago. The Los Angeles authorities, who have a good case against Kinjry on a charge of burglary, expressed themselves as willing to surrender their prisoner to the Oakland police to be tried on a charge of murder.

The evidence against Kinjry is circumstantial, but it is convincing and it is thought that the jury which tries the case will convict.

Kinjry was in company with another burglar by the name of Goldstein at the time Policeman Smith was murdered. Smith asked the two men what they were doing on Jackson street when he encountered them. For a reply Kinjry is alleged to have pulled a revolver and to have shot Smith through the stomach. The injured policeman although mortally wounded returned the fire killing Goldstein. It is on the dying statement of Smith that the prosecution will base its hopes of conviction. Smith stated that it was the robber who got away who shot him and not the one he shot.

There is a pistol belonging to Goldstein in possession of the police. This, taken in conjunction with the confession of Kinjry that he was one of the burglars, forms the chain of circumstances which may lead to his hanging.

The deceased was a brother of Former Sheriff Hussey of this county but had always resided in the northern part of the State.

PROVIDES DINNER FOR TOTS

H. W. BISHOP IS THANKSGIVING HOST AT THE WEST OAKLAND HOME.

Following an annual custom that was established by his father, the late Walter Morosco, H. W. Bishop, manager of Ye Liberty Theater to-day entertained the children of the West Oakland Home. Elaborate preparations had been made for the event and the scene at the home was a gala one throughout the day.

The great dining room was appropriately decorated with bunting and holiday tokens and when a hundred children sat down to the heavily laden festal board at 1:30 o'clock the scene was a brilliant one.

The dinner over, the remainder of the afternoon was spent in games. Mr. Bishop assisted personally in entertaining the children with whom he has become a general favorite. His annual entertainment for the children has become to be known as Morosco Day. A number of seasons he has had the children at the old country homestead, but this year decided on the innovation of giving the children a Thanksgiving feast.

THANKSGIVING DAY WEDDING

COLONEL HENRY H. TODD AND DR. WILLIAM J. HOSFORD ARE BENDICTS.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 24.—A Thanksgiving wedding of unusual local interest took place today when Colonel Henry H. Todd, proprietor of the Park Hotel, wedded Mrs. Margaret Muller of Boston.

Quite a romance is attached to the nuptials. While in the East a year ago, Colonel Tood met the woman who is now his bride, and when he returned to Alameda she accompanied him. Since that time she has been the managing housekeeper at his hotel. The groom is well known in Grand Army circles on account of his splendid record as a Colonel in the Eighth New Jersey Volunteers during the Rebellion. He was made a prisoner of war on several occasions, but in each instance succeeded in making his escape.

HOSFORD-BENSON NUPTIALS.

Thanksgiving eve Dr. William J. Hosford and Miss Nellie E. Benson were united in marriage last night at 8 o'clock at Central avenue and Oak streets. Miss Benson is a social favorite, and Dr. Hosford is a well known fraternal man, being a member of Derby Lodge, Sons of St. George.

FIGHT TO GET ROADS

Harriman and Huntington Disagree Over Electric Lines.

Interest is being taken in the local financial world over a merry three-cornered fight between I. W. Hellman, E. E. Huntington and E. H. Harriman, growing out of the question of policy in operating the Pacific Electric Railway and the Interurban Railway Companies in Los Angeles.

Banker Hellman had decided that it is to his interest to join with Harriman, which has had the effect of placing Huntington in the minority in the contest of those companies.

At a recent meeting of the stockholders of the companies the Hellman-Harriman forces were strong enough to elect directors who are not supposed to be in harmony with the minority.

Closely following the news of this disagreement comes another story from Los Angeles to the effect that Huntington has declared his intention of stepping out of the directorate of the Southern Pacific Company. This may lend additional zest to the differences between the financiers.

I. W. Hellman refuses to confirm the stories afloat, but a man who is very close to the banker and railroad magnate said that it was true that several changes had been made in the directorate of the two Los Angeles street railway corporations, but he did not regard it as very significant. Continuing he said:

"Although several directors have been changed, it remains a fact that Henry E. Huntington is still president of the Pacific Electric Railway. As a matter of fact, Huntington has always been a minority stockholder, but with the aid of Hellman he has practically dominated the affairs of the companies. Furthermore, Hellman, as every one knows, has long been interested with Harriman, and today the banker and his son are representatives of the Harriman interests in a number of steam railroads in California."

SNOW MUST GIVE BACK MONEY

WHILE ACTING AS AUDITOR HE RETAINED $7,868.32 FOR FEES.

By a decision of the Supreme Court just rendered, former Mayor R. W. Snow must return $1868.32 to the city treasury. If unable to make good the liability the Fidelity and Guaranty Company of Maryland, which was on his bond at the time he was serving the city as Auditor and Assessor, will be called upon to make the amount good.

While serving in this capacity Snow retained $7868.32 as fees for the collection of personal property taxes and before suit was begun against him $6000 of the city's claim had outlawed and could not be collected. Suit, however, was begun to recover $1868.32 and a judgment in favor of the city was given by Judge S. P. Hall, which has now been affirmed by the Supreme Court.

The courts found that Snow received $3000 a year as salary and had no right to any commission on the money collected by him.

WIFE DRIVES HIM TO SUICIDE

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Driven to desperation by the plight of his wife, who, he had told his fellow passengers, is under arrest at Hamburg, charged with child murder, Dernetel Boni, a steerage passenger, jumped overboard from the steamer Grafwaldersee and was drowned.

The suicide was reported when the steamer arrived here today from Hamburg.

The officers of the Waldersee said that Boni appeared greatly distressed when he boarded the steamer and drank heavily. Last Tuesday he jumped overboard and although the steamer was put about and a boat was sent in search of the man, he was not found. Boni was an Austrian about thirty-six years of age.

Clerk Fails to Identify Nan Patterson at Trial.

NEW YORK, November 23.—The trial of the Patterson case was resumed this afternoon.

Mr. Levy suggested that Dr. O'Hanlon be put on the stand to tell the jury what made the black marks on the skin. Mr. Rand objected to the defense going on at this stage of the trial and also to calling Dr. O'Hanlon as an expert.

"I have a man who extracted grains of powder from those pieces of skin," said Mr. Levy.

Justice Davis admonished the attorney to be more careful in his remarks and directed the jury to disregard the utterances of counsel regarding what it was claimed examination of the exhibits by others than the witness disclosed.

Edward Freligh, a clerk in Stern's pawnshop, said that late on the afternoon of June 3 last, a man and a woman bought a revolver from the place where he is employed.

The man was tall and well built, but he was unable to describe the woman.

The sale was made by Mr. Stern, the proprietor.

He identified the weapon in court as one purchased by the man.

RAILROAD PLAN FOR VALLEJO.

Government Will Give Permission to Have it Built.

VALLEJO, November 23.—Notice of the formal approval of the bureau at Washington of the recommendation made by the Ordnance Department of the Mare Island Navy Yard some time ago in regard to the construction of a railroad at the magazines to be operated by means of condensed air have been received here and bids for the construction of the railroad will soon be advertised for. The introduction of a railroad to be operated by means of condensed air is something entirely new at this yard and is a plan highly favored by Captain Franklin J. Drake, the present head of the Ordnance Department at the Mare Island yard, and an officer who is regarded as one of the highest authorities on ordnance subjects in the service.

Owing to the large amount of powder which is kept in the magazines of the yard it is of course out of the question to operate a steam engine in the vicinity, and all hauling has necessarily been done with teams. With the construction of the proposed railroad around the magazines, however, the work can be handled with greater ease and expedition. A condensed air plant will be established where the air will be put under pressure of 1000 pounds to the square inch. The locomotive to be used will be charged at frequent intervals, the amount of condensed air taken at one charging being sufficient to enable it to run one mile and a half.

The proposals for the plant and engine in question have been received from the bureau in Washington and bids for the contract will shortly be advertised for. The construction of a condensed air plant for the operation of a railroad among the different magazines here is one of the most important steps that has been taken in the advance of the Ordnance Department at this yard.

WOMEN PLACED ON TRIAL.

Government Hopes to Convict Them on Conspiracy Charge.

PORTLAND, Ore., Nov. 23.—The Federal attorneys in the land fraud cases bent every energy in court to-day to show primarily as a basis for its ground for prosecution that the government has been robbed by somebody, with the end in view of later on fastening the crimes upon the accused persons now on trial.

At morning witnesses occupied the box to establish identity of documents by which the government hopes to establish to the satisfaction of the jury that Miss Ware, Mrs. Watson, McKinley, Puter and others are guilty of acts of conspiracy to defraud the government.

Thus far the government has sought to prove that somebody has committed a crime by the introduction of evidence to indicate overt acts, reserving until later developments which are expected to show the conspiracy of the principals by connecting them with the legal acts. This manner of proving the case was objected to by the defense this afternoon but Judge Bellinger sustained the position taken by the prosecution.

Circuit Judge William Galloway, of the Third District, was the first witness called by the government to-day.

FORGED TO GET MONEY.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 23.—A term in San Quentin taught Arthur Coleman a new trick in the game of living without work. Now the police are searching for him and when he is located there will be placed opposite his name on the prison register a charge of forgery.

Coleman was released from San Quentin a few months ago, and after his release made his headquarters at Ovice Gervias' barber shop on Pacific street. There he learned that the proprietor of the place had a wealthy uncle of the same name living at Fargo, North Dakota. Coleman lost no time in reaching the Western Union Telegraph office, where he wrote and forwarded a telegram to his wealthy uncle. He advised the uncle that he was out of employment and in hard circumstances and asked that $60 be wired him. He signed Gervias' name to the message.

When the cash came, identification was demanded and Coleman asked H. W. Knowlton to identify him. Knowlton agreed but his identification was insufficient and through him H. Le Baron Smith was induced to make the identification. Smith was known at the office and Coleman got the money.

The trick was not discovered until yesterday when a letter came from the uncle in North Dakota. As soon as the Western Union Company was advised of the affair Manager O'Brien hastened to police headquarters and told the story. This afternoon he swore to a complaint before Judge Fritz charging Coleman with forging a receipt and a warrant for his arrest is now in the hands of the police.

WILLDE DICATE STATUE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—San Francisco's tribute to former President McKinley, an heroic statue erected at the Baker-street entrance to Golden Gate Park will be dedicated with appropriate ceremonies to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock. This monument, designed by Robert I. Aiken, the young California sculptor, was constructed out of funds collected by popular subscription. Nearly $34,000 was given voluntarily by the public for the purpose.

James D. Phelan, chairman of the executive committee, which carried out the plans for the work, will make the speech of presentation, and a member of the Board of Park Commissioners will accept the monument. John McNaught will deliver the oration. There will be music during the exercises.

The great bronze statute, which represents a woman of heroic figure, holding a laurel branch, is at the Baker-street entrance of the park panhandle, the first object to be seen by persons entering the park driveway.

The executive committee which carried out the details of this tribute is composed of James D. Phelan, William Greer Harrison, H. U. Brandenstein, D. J. O'Leary, James M. McDonald, A. A. Watkins, S. G. Murphy, Rolla V. Watt, Robert Howe Fletcher and B. J. S. Cahill.

EXCITING TIMES IN NORTH.

Several Sailors Are Lost While on Fishing Trip.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 23.—The whaling schooner Charles Hanson came into this port, ending a cruise of eight months in the North Atlantic and the Arctic in search of bone. She had only 2200 pounds of the stuff in her hold when she dropped her anchor, and her catch will fall a long way short of paying the expenses of the voyage. The whalers of her crew said the ice was so thick in the northern seas that they were unable to get within striking distance of whales except with great difficulty. They only succeeded in securing one whale. Several others that they harpooned managed to escape by diving under the ice floes.

On September 3 the vessel got pinched in the ice when off Point Barrow. Her stem and forefoot were carried away and her planking was badly damaged, causing the vessel to leak. The schooner ran into a storm off Cape Flattery on her way home and in a gale her jibboom was carried away.

The schooner called at Dutch Harbor on her way home, and then she picked up H. Meyer and brought him to port. He sailed from here in May last on the schooner Stanley on a codfishing cruise off the Alaskan coast.

"We were off Chinawick Island," said Meyer, "when three dories put out from the vessel to fish for cod. I was with two other men in one of them. One other dory had four men in it, and the third one had two men. We had been fishing only a short time when a fog shut down over the sea and we started back for our vessel. Before we reached it a storm sprung up and we were lost and helpless on the ocean. The storm drove us northward. All we could do was to keep baling our boat, and after four days the storm subsided. We were without food and there was only a small quantity of water in the boat. All the fifth day we rowed our craft toward the east, and toward night we made out land. We found ourselves in the vicinity of Dutch Harbor, and the next day we were in the port.

"The dory with the four men in it was picked up by a sealer at sea, but the other boat with two men in it has not been heard of as far as I know. The men in it were from San Francisco, but I do not know their names."

Mate Cahill of the whaling schooner had a narrow escape from death while fighting a whale. The leviathan had been harpooned and was making a desperate fight for liberty among the ice floes. Cahill had fired the bomb at the whale and missed, and reached for a gun to fire a second. The boat gave a lurch and in the excitement the gun was discharged. The heavily charged bomb passed through the mate's clothing and left a red mark on his skin where it scraped across his body.

JOSEPH YOUNG APPOINTED.

DENVER, November 23.—Joseph H. Young to-day resigned as general superintendent of the Rio Grande Western Railroad with headquarters at Salt Lake City, to become general superintendent of the Colorado and Southern. He will enter upon his new position December 1.

The office to which Young is appointed was created to relieve vice-president and general manager J. M. Herbert of some of his present responsibility when he takes up the active management of the road after the coming removal of President Frank Trumbull to Chicago.

BATTLE ON THE BAY.

Fishermen Engage in a Fierce Contest on Water.

SAN RAFAEL, November 23.—A desperate midnight battle between launches belonging to rival shrimp fisheries took place in the bay opposite Point San Pedro, near the Contra Costa shore. Rifles were used and several shots were fired. It is believed that one launch was rammed and sunk. The boat was certainly in a sinking condition, but whether or not it reached shore is not known.

The trouble grew out of the health authorities preventing the sale of shrimps taken in the southern part of the bay. This drove one of the companies threatened with extermination to invade the grounds of the Point San Pedro Company. The latter company claims that the other company demanded that it be sold a half interest in the business. This was refused, and the trouble commenced. Several weeks ago the San Pedro Company hired launches and patrolled the bay every night, protecting its nets.

There were two launches, each containing five men armed with repeating rifles.

Last night they found two launches trolling over their nets. Fire was immediately opened by both sides. It was dark and foggy, but both sides kept up the fight for half an hour, when one of the San Pedro launches crashed into the side of one of the enemy's launches. The crippled launch gave up the battle and headed toward the shore. Its mate also hurriedly withdrew.

The San Pedro boats captured an ugly piece of machinery which furnishes ample evidence against criminal intention of the intruders. It is a heavy bar of iron, with four knife-blades curled up at the end. the bar was attached to a rope and was being dragged from the stern of one of the launches over the nets, cutting them to pieces. This is not the end of the trouble. It is probable that a number of warrants will be sworn out within a few days, when the full story of the sea fight off Point San Pedro will be told in court.

UNLUCKY DAY FOR JOCKEYS.

Jockey Fitzpatrick had a narrow escape from death yesterday afternoon during the last race. Ocyrhe, his mount, stumbled half way down the stretch and threw the jockey. As the lad lay on the ground Ledatrix ran over him, although Jockey Sullivan attempted to steer his mount away. The animal's flying heels struck Fitzpatrick on the head and he received a severe scalp wound. While no bones were broken the lad is quite badly injured and will not be able to ride for some days.

Yesterday was an unlucky day for jockeys. In the first race Bell and Morgan were thrown from their mounts, but neither was seriously hurt. In the next race Bell's saddle turned on him and he rode half the race bareback. His two experiences must have frightened him for he refused to ride any more during the day. His mounts were taken by Sullivan.

It required a whole lot of driving on the part of Jockey Sullivan to fetch the favorite, Flaneur, 9 to 10, home first in yesterday's opening event. The second choice in the ring, Kavabel, lost by a neck, but apparently would have won had Sherwood ridden better. It was simply a case of Kavabel being the best horse yesterday, but having the worst jockey at the saddle. Myrtle H., 30 to 1, mingled with the leaders and should show something in her next appearance. Ledus led nothing; Ethel G. soon wore out; Miss May Bodish was an old maid and Wandering Boy got lost on the circle.

The public got in right on the second race when Entre Nous was heavily played about the ring. The opening price was even and by post time it was 2 to 5. For a while it looked like Nealon's two-year-old was to be lost, but under whip she galoped ahead in the stretch and remained there. Lily Golding at 60 to 1 and, no nibblers, surprised herself by finishing second, while acene, quoted at half the price, annexed third money. Barlow didn't like the track; mud is wasted. Sun Rose and set on the back stretch. Glendene didn't work well at all; seemed to have quit.

There was hardly any play on Yade in the third race. The colt was number one on the official program and that's the way he finished. He opened at 6, but as he wasn't liked, the price receded to 10 to 1. The colt was a fair performer around St. Louis the past season and was evidently overlooked yesterday. Corn Blossom came to a head for second place, while Bob Ragon just got place. Bob and George P. McNear were well played, but neither were due yesterday. Ding Dong failed to strike.

There was a little upset in the fourth event when Eva G., Mrs. Coffey's animal, quoted at 3 to 1, led all the way round and smothered Heather Honey, an even money favorite. Allopath had third place nicely copped out. The others ran in the second division. Fitzpatrick made a nice ride on the winner.

Apparently it has done Whon Bill good to get a change of owners. The favorite, Sterling Towers, led to the head of the stretch when she toppled over when passed by Whoa Bill. Scotsman ran third as he did in his last race. The bookies were tight in this race, the longest price being at the opening 10 to 1.

When coming into the stretch Ocyrhoe was figuring good and would probably have returned the money confidently played by the public. The fall, however, changed things and Mindane dropped in first. Red Cross Nurse was the second to knock at the gate, while Northwest blew in third. Play Ball didn't like the diamond; Instrument was out of tune.

ROOT AND RYAN FIGHT A FAKE.

After one of the most unsatisfactory fights ever held in Philadelphia, the contest between Tommy Ryan, the middleweight pugilist, and Jack Root of Chicago, came to an end in the fourth round when Referee Jack McGuigan left the ring, declaring that the battle was clearly a fake.

The men did nothing more than feint for nearly a full minute in the opening round, which was followed by a light exchange of blows, which left no mark on the fighters. Ryan caught Root lightly on the cheek and Root returned with a light blow on the jaw. There was more sparring and then Ryan let go a straight-arm blow to Root's mouth, which did no damage. When the bell rang the men were clinched. The spectators began to hiss the men toward the end of the round and as they took their corners a storm of disapproval was hurled at them.

In the second round not a solid blow was struck. Both men swung wildly at each other, the blows in most cases falling short of the mark. What few light blows were struck were harmless. Root, as a rule, was the aggressor. All through the second round the crowd hissed and kept it up after the round ended.

The third round was so palpably poor that Referee McGuigan leaped against the ropes and waved his hands in disgust at the fighters' attempt to mix it up. After two minutes and twenty seconds of the round had elapsed Root swung on Ryan and Ryan dropped to the floor to avoid the blow. At this action the referee turned his back on the men and the spectators became noisy. Ryan got on one knee, and, seeing that the referee was not tolling off the seconds, the fighters went to their corners.

The managers of both fighters vehemently protested against the action of the referee, but they found few sympathizers in the crowd.

Ryan and Root were late in entering the ring. After the spectators had been kept waiting half an hour Referee McGuigan, who has an interest in the club, announced that the fighters were counting the money in the box office. He explained that the house was a slim one and that each boasted his money in advance. Five minutes later Ryan and Root appeared.

The confusion was great. At the expiration of the three minutes the bell rang, but, instead of sitting in their corners, the men thought it was the beginning of the fourth round. The referee let them go. He watched the men mix up a little and then walked over to where the newspaper men were seated and told them Root had just told Ryan "to mix it up." He watched them again attempting to land blows, which they did without damage, and after 1 minute and 33 seconds had elapsed he jumped through the ropes and left the men in the ring alone. His action met with the approval of the crowd.

The moment McGuigan left the men a half hundred policemen, under the command of a captain, surrounded the ring. Ryan and Root stood in their respective corners, not knowing what to do, and evidently afraid to leave the area, for fear of harm at the hands of the disappointed crowd. Suddenly a soda water bottle which had been thrown from the gallery dropped in the middle of the ring. Then a score of policemen climbed through the ropes and waved their hands for the crowd to calm down. When the police had a semblance of control Ryan and Root were led to their dressing-rooms under heavy escort.

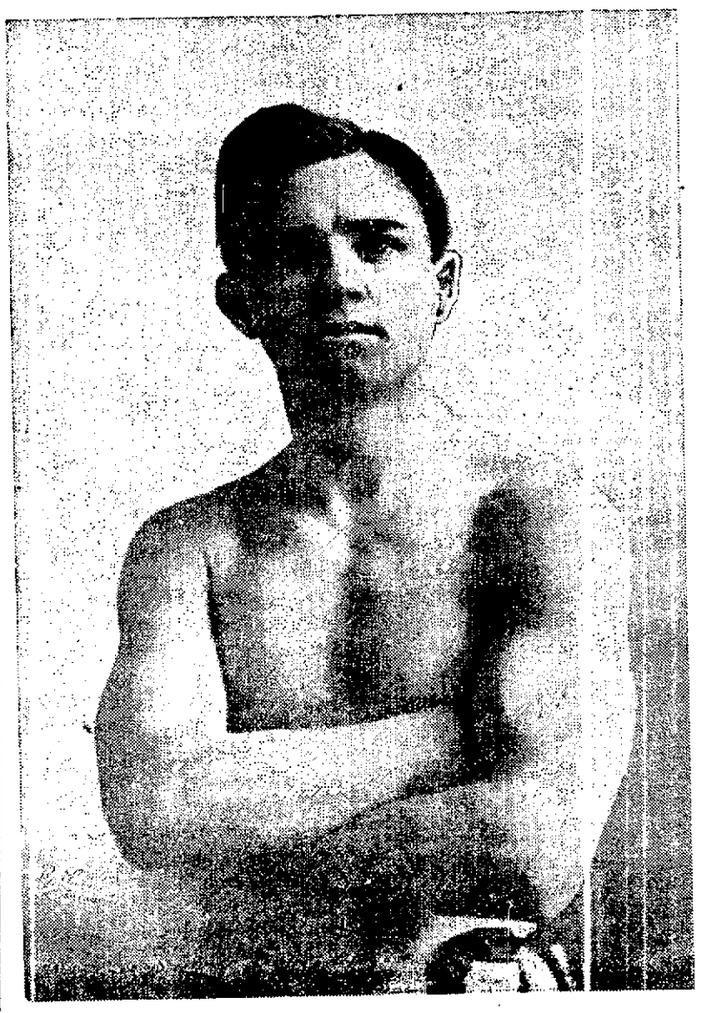

YOUTHFUL GUNNERS.

LANSING, Mich., Nov. 24.—Five small boys, from 8 to 11 years old, attending one of the city schools, were found to be carrying revolvers. The weapons had been stolen from various stores of the city and were carried for the purpose of overawing any teacher who attempted to punish them. The boys were turned over to the police.

UNHAPPINESS DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unanimous About It.

Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserables of both sexes to learn that Newbro's Herpicide has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp germicide and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Herpicide is a new preparation, made after a new formula on the entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify as to its worth. Try it yourself and be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Company, Detroit, Michigan. Bowman & Company, Special Agents.

BATTLING NELSON AND YOUNG CORBETT.

If Young Corbett is returned a winner over Battling Nelson, then he and not Jimmy Gardner will be chosen for Jimmy Britt's opponent for the December show of Manager James Coffroth's Yosemite Club. This has all come about by the fact that the Denverite has announced that he is willing to meet Britt at catch-weights. Says Young Corbett:

"I was in hopes that Britt would box me at 130 pounds a 6 o'clock, the weight at which we fought before. I am on his own ground now and I can see that he meant it when he said he would act as dictator. He says that I dictated to him the last time. I did not. I asked him which was the lowest weight he would make for me, and he said 130 pounds. I tried for a while to bring him to 129 pounds, and finally let him have his own way.

"Anyhow, that is all past. Britt has the upper hand now. Other boxers have had to come to his terms, and I suppose I will have to do the same. I believe I can defeat Britt no matter what the weight may be. He says he wants 132 pounds at 6 o'clock or 133 at the ringside. I will go further than that. I will box him at catch-weights. In other words, I will allow him to name whatever weight he thinks suits him best, and I will sign articles to fight him at that weight. When you have to knock under to a man you may as well do it completely. That is why I am sweeping away all bars in respect to weight. I only want the public to know that I made a business-like proposal to Britt and was turned down. I now name catch-weights, because Britt will not fight me at my weight.

"The thing which is forcing me to this principally is the fear that I may be done out of my match with Britt by Jimmy Gardner. Britt is my meat. The public recognizes that I am entitled to a contest with him. I thought for a while that Gardner's name was simply brought into it to exert pressure on me, but I can see now that if I don't let Britt have his own way I will miss my chance of a return battle—the chance I have waited for the greater part of the year. Britt is master of the situation. All I want him to do is sign articles for a match next month."

UMPIRE IS MOBBED BY LOS ANGELES FANS.

Angered because they believed his decisions were rank, a crowd of fans mobbed Umpire Brown at Los Angeles yesterday after the Seattle-Los Angeles game.

He was attacked by Frank Chance at the end of the eighth inning, when the game had been called on account of darkness, and Seattle was on the long end of the score, and received blows that brought blood and was all but out.

Here the police interfered and the unhappy umpire was escorted under protection from the grounds. The fans were angry, however, and hurled missels at Brown. Manager Morley sought to secure peace, but no one would listen to him. Finally, Brown was taken to his hotel by the police while a crowd of over 200 persons followed and jeered at the baseball judge.

The trouble was caused by the fact that decisions rendered by Umpire Brown gave the game to Seattle. It is claimed by the Los Angeles fans that the judgments were biased and that Brown purposely presented the contest to the Siwashes.

In the second inning Flood slapped Brown with his glove and was sent to the bench. Frisk was thought to have been forced out at second, but Brown called him safe. He was hooted and jeered and the players drew about him threateningly. Then Flood slapped the judge and got sent to the bench. From this on the fans were in an angry mood and jeered at Brown whenever there was a close decision and he decided against the Angels.

When he called the game on account of darkness the crowd swarmed into the field and then the trouble commenced.

BOWLING TOURNAMENT OPENS NOVEMBER 29.

Play in the Palace Alleys' handicap bowling tournament will be commenced promptly at 8 o'clock on the evening of November 29, the Eagles and the Palace teams to contest. Then for about three months will ensue the greatest six-team tourney every known in the bowling history of Alameda county.

As has been stated before in these columns, the clubs entered are the Eagles, scratch; Palace, 225 pins handicap; Alerts, 250 pins handicap; Owls, 275 pins handicap; Broadways, 275 pins handicap and Young Eagles, 300 pins handicap.

These teams contain some of the best bowling talent to be found about the bay and so careful has been the handicapper's form study that it is believed that the tourney will be very close.

All games will be bowled on the Palace Alleys, 425 Twelfth street. These are exceptionally good alleys and it will not be surprising if records are broken during the contest. The alleys will be at the disposal of the teams at 8 p. m. of the night of the contest and all games must be started promptly at 8:15 o'clock. Any team not on hand at that time allows the opposing team to roll the first game, the absentees forfeiting that game.

The winner of the tournament is to receive a prize of $40; second in score, and third in the race $15; high individual average of each team, $5; high individual average of tournament, $5.

Following the Tribune prints for the first time the complete schedule of games to be bowled by the various clubs:

Eagles vs. Palace, November 29, December 28, January 26.
Alerts vs. Owls, November 30, January 3, January 27.
Broadways vs. Young Eagles, December 1, January 4, 31.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT DUCK HUNTER

While duck hunting yesterday at San Lorenzo William C. Russell, a prominent young mining engineer of this city, was accidentally shot in the face by William Pool of the bicycle firm of Leavitt & Bill. The men, with E. J. Stewart, a real estate broker, were shooting across a pond. Poole's gun was discharged just as Russell stepped in front of the weapon. The charge of shot struck Russell, glancing across his face, many of the pellets lodging in his chin.

After the accident the hunters hastened to Oakland, where Russell's injury was treated by Dr. W. H. Huntington. The wound was painful, but is not serious. Russell is confined to his home, 689 Thirty-third street.

AMERICA OFFICERS FOR CHINA'S TROOPS

Officers for the Chinese reform army are being recruited from the National Guard of this State and it is said that already about twenty-five members, some of them locally prominent, have made application. Trained officers to the number of 8000 are being sought by the reform association.

All who make application are bound to secrecy. But it is learned that service is promised for five years, that transportation will be furnished and that the pay is to be 20 per cent greater than that of American officers in the tropics. The applications have been told that the army they are to command will number 150,000.

ENGLISHMEN ALARMED.

NEW YORK, November 24.—Dispatches received in London, says a dispatch from that city to the Times, have aroused considerable anxiety in some quarters in regard to the future relations between Canada and the mother country.

Many English statesmen appear to believe, the correspondent continues, that there is strong probability of closer commercial relations between Canada and the United States, which would result immediately in great damage to England's colonial trade, and eventually, perhaps, in the dissolution of the political ties that unite England and her American colony.

KRUGER'S FORTUNE.

NEW YORK, November 24.—Paul Kruger, the late President of the Transvaal Republic left a fortune estimated by the Amsterdam correspondent of the World at $3,750,000. He bequeathed $125,000 to various societies in Holland and sums of all the funds opened after the South African war for the support of the Boer widows and orphans. Bequests also were made for the maintenance of the Dutch language.

BASEBALL AT STANFORD.

CARDINAL PLAYERS ARE PREPARING FOR SPRING SEASON.

STANFORD UNIVERSITY, Nov. 24.—The freshman baseball team defeated the faculty nine yesterday afternoon by the score of 8 to 7. Seven innings were played and the contest showed that the first-year class had a wealth of promising material.

The appearance of the first-year men was viewed with especial interest, due to the fact that Stanford will meet California in the first freshmen baseball contest next spring. A game between the first-year men was provided for by the athletic committees of the two universities last year. But one game will decide the supremacy and this will be played on the Stanford campus, late next February or early in March.

Of the thirty-five men who turned out a number give promise of being good players. Chief among these is Fenton, captain of the freshman football team, who comes to college with a good record from Portland Academy. Though a pitcher of ability, Fenton will probably try for second base. Koerner, a good outfielder, was a team mate of Fenton's on the Portland Academy.

A number of men have signified their intention of trying for pitcher, but Coughran, from Lang Polytechnic, and Menard, from Los Angeles High, seems to have the best records. Other good men who are out are Mequaide of Marysville, catcher; Moody from Belmont, at first; Thicle, Oklahoma Agricultural College, shortstop; Cole, Harvard School, third base, and Salisbury, Pomona College; Mac Swain, Santa Clara, and Cadwalader, Pomona College, in the field.

SOCIETY GIRLS TESTIFY.

Miss Jolliffe Produces a Letter Written on the Ocean.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 24.—The affairs of society, dinners, luncheons, teas, automobile parties and golf were discussed all day yesterday in Judge Coffey's court, the matter in hand being the Dolbeer will contest, and the evidence being given by a number of friends of the late heiress, Miss Bertha Dolbeer, who detailed the character of their intimacy with her. The testimony in each instance went to prove that there was no taint of insanity affecting Miss Dolbeer, and no traces evident of the attacks of depression and melancholy which Hiram Johnson endeavored to establish as a fact. The strongest witnesses of the day were Miss Mary Jolliffe, one of Miss Dolbeer's closest friends, and Miss Grace Spreckels, another intimate friend. Miss Jolliffe saw Miss Dolbeer for the last time on the morning of April 27th, having been one of those who crossed the bay to Oakland on the day of the latter's departure for Europe. A number of Miss Dolbeer's friends gathered at the ferry to say good-bye among them being Miss Helen Wagner, Miss Virginia Jolliffe, Miss Isabel O'Connor, Miss Cornelia O'Connor, Dr. Eugene Zeile, John Zeile, Addison Mizner, Raymond Armsby, William M. Carson and William Mugan. Several of these went to Oakland also. Miss Dolbeer was in good spirits, very gay, cheerful and happy over her journey.

Miss Jolliffe gave an account of the events of the much talked of Sunday before Miss Dolbeer left California last April. She called between 3 and 4 o'clock in the afternoon at Miss Dolbeer's house, stayed there some time and when she arose to go Miss Dolbeer asked where she was going. She said to see Mrs. Forman's new apartment, and Miss Dolbeer said: "Wait a minute and I'll go with you," which she did. Miss Jolliffe, during the entire time she was with Miss Dolbeer, could see no signs of mental or physical depression or lack of interest.

The following letter from Miss Dolbeer to Miss Jolliffe, written going across, was then introduced as evidence, to show that she was natural, cheerful and interested in the events of her journey:

My Dear Mary: This is the first opportunity I have found to write. The steamer is a bit unsteady, so forgive the writing. We had a very uneventful trip across the continent. The people were very unattractive looking, with the exception of one girl traveling alone we spoke to no one. Saw the Whitneys at Rocklin for a few minutes.

When we arrived at Chicago went to the Annex, where we tried to look a little respectable before having luncheon with my friends, Mr. and Mrs. Thompson. She brought his and her brother along, and after luncheon they took us all to the matinee. We caught the 5:30 out of Chicago, arriving in New York Sunday evening looking tired and dirty. We saw the O'Connors, of course, and Mrs Blair. The O'Connors left the next day for Philadelphia, so we did not see them before sailing. Tell Frances that Dr. Gibney called the night we arrived and was very nice to us. The following evening we had dinner with him and a friend of his and went to the theater. I could have had an awfully good time in New York if I had stayed, but what can one do in two days? It was merely an aggravation. Saw Ethel Postley several times. Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Postley are on board, so the Stirling Postleys were down to see them off. Fred Greenwood and George de Long called the day before I left.

This is our third day out. Yesterday was simply beautiful, but to-day has been cold and rainy and it looks as though it was blowing up a storm. It has been a little rough at times, but as yet I have not been seasick. "Auntie" has also been a fine sailor. Have met several people with whom I find we have friends in common. The steamer is about half full. There are quite a number of English people aboard, but altogether the crowd is not very interesting looking. There are a few actresses on board, so I am hoping if we have a concert the last evening they will take part.

Be sure and write me soon and tell me all the news of S. F. I want to thank you and Virginia again for your parting gift. You were both very good to come down and see us off. I have dozens of letters to write, so must stop. With loads of love,

BERTHA M. DOLBEER.

May 6, 1904.

"Auntie," Miss Jolliffe explained, was Miss Warren, who was known by this title among Miss Dolbeer's intimate friends.

PROTEST PARTLY SUSTAINED.

NEW YORK, November 24.—A protest by Alberto Uget of Galveston, Texas, against being compelled to pay duty on dead horses entered from Mexico has been partly sustained by a decision of the Board of General Appraisers here.

Uget entered at the sub-port of Brownsville, Texas, a lot of 200 horses in bond for transportation to Galveston. When they arrived there, seven were missing, three having died before crossing the frontier and four after they had entered the United States. General Appraiser Hay rules that no duty had been passed on the three dead in Mexico, whereas to the other four the importers remedy lies in an appeal to the Secretary of the Treasury.

NOT FOR BEST FARM

In the State

"I saw so much in the papers about the wonderful cures effected by Pyramid Pile Cure, I determined to give it a trial. I bought from my druggist one fifty cent box and used it as directed, and by the time I had used the last "pyramid" I was entirely cured; in four days after I began to use the "pyramids" all inflammation was gone. I was perfectly easy all the time, the excessive discharge stopped at once, and stools became easy and gentle.

"I was unable to get my own firewood for four months, and half the time when I could walk at all I had to walk half bent. I used many pile remedies, salves and ointments, all to no effect until I used one fifty cent box of Pyramid Pile Cure and was cured.

"I would not be afflicted as I was four months ago for the best farm in the State of Arkansas. I can give proof and reference of the wonderful cure to all who are afflicted as I was. Please publish my letter that I may advise the afflicted." W. E. Wallis, Piggot, Ark., Box 26.

The experience of Mr. Wallis is that of thousands of others who suffer for years with the most painful forms of hemorrhoids, or piles, and after trying everything they hear of, give up all hope of a cure and look for temporary relief only. To all such a little book published by Pyramid Drug Co., Marshall, Mich., brings glad tidings, as it tells all about the cause and cure of piles, and is sent free for the asking.

BROADWAY TAFT & PENNOYER FOURTEENTH

LIVESTOCK MEN TO MEET

ANNUAL GATHERING TO BE HELD IN DENVER NEXT JANUARY.

DENVER, November 24.—The call for the annual meeting of the Livestock Association in Denver, January 10 to 14, 1905, has been issued. The call states that the principal business of the convention will be the consideration of a resolution which will be proposed by the executive committee, for the appointment of a committee to revise the constitution and by-laws of the association. On this point the call says:

In the opinion of a large number of the members of this association a condition exists which makes it necessary to consider a revision of the constitution and by-laws of this organization so as to provide for a more liberal representation of the various branches of the livestock industry upon a business basis that will permit of active co-operation, without unnecessary interference with the affairs of any interest.

"By order of the board of control, therefore, the representatives of all interests involved in the breeding, growing, feeding, transportation, marketing and manufacture of livestock are hereby invited to attend this convention and participate in a general conference, looking towards such revision and amendment to the constitution and by-laws of this association as will produce a more active and harmonious co-operation between the various branches of the livestock industry."

The resolution to be offered by the executive committee will read as follows:

"Resolved, That, for the purpose of considering a revision of the constitution and by-laws, that a committee be appointed, consisting of three representatives, from each of the following industries: Cattle growers, sheep growers, stock feeders, swine growers, railroads, packing-houses, stockyards, commission men and pure bred record associations. Said representatives may be suggested by those in the convention representing the various interests named, or they may be named by the president. Said committee shall meet at once and report back to this convention as soon as possible with such recommendations as it may decide upon."

ASA C. WARREN DEAD.

NEW YORK, November 24.—Asa Coolidge Warren, for many years a well known magazine illustrator and one of the organizers of the Sons of the Revolution, is dead at his home here. He was born eighty-six years ago in Boston. In his youth Warren entered the government service at Washington and did much to develop steel engraving in connection with the government notes. Later he illustrated the first edition of the Whittier poems.

PROFESSOR COOLEY AGAINST AUTO LAW

ANN ARBOR, Mich., Nov. 24.—Prof. M. E. Cooley, dean of the Engineering Department of the University of Michigan has condemned the use of automatic low-water alarms with which a Michigan statute required all stationary engines to be equipped.

Prof. Cooley stated that he had advised companies by whom he is employed as consulting engineer not to comply with the law. He declared that the danger of explosion is greater when these alarms are used for the reason that none of them are perfect, the best of them clogging up and becoming useless from dirt, the action of water and other causes and that persons in charge of boilers equipped with these so-called alarms rely on the apparatus to give notice of danger and thus increase the chances of explosion and disaster.

Prof. Cooley expressed the emphatic opinion that the law in question should be repealed by the next Legislature.

These children will be seen in a series of living pictures, each depicting an advertisement of some popular line of merchandise, as Wool Soap, Hire's Rootbeer, etc. There will also be a program each afternoon and evening of vocal and instrumental selections. Popular Unrest in Russia

Signs multiply that the thunder of the Japanese guns is awakening the Russian people. The peasantry have become emboldened to demand representative government under constitutional limitations. A few years ago such a thing would have been deemed incredible. No leaders could have been found for such a movement. The people would never have dared to lift their voices in a demand for a change of government. But the horrors, exactions and privations of a bloody foreign war have nerved grievances into open protest. In the present popular agitation is heard the mutter of a coming storm. A patient virile, long enduring people are feeling the impulse that compels the reform of corrupt and effete systems or leads to their complete overthrow. If the Manchurian war shall cause constitutional government to take the place of the present unbridled despotism in Russia it will not prove an unmixed curse to mankind. It will afford another example of good coming out of evil. With rare exceptions, Americans who have desired Japanese success have not done so because of hostility to the Russian people. As a rule they are the friends and well wishers of the Russians as a people, but are foes to the Russian system of government, which crucifies civil and religious liberty while giving the governed a government so evil in purpose and so corrupt in application as to constitute a crime against civilization. In this country, it is believed that the Russian people will in the long run benefit by the defeat of the Czar's foreign aggressions, and the breaking of his military power. A victory over Japan, with its consequent extension of territory, would strengthen the despotic authority of the Moscovite autocrat and postpone the establishment of a freer, more humane, more enlightened and better ordered system of government for the empire. Those who execrate the government and policy of Russia sympathize most warmly with the Russian people. They wish to see the Russian masses educated and lifted out of their present degraded and oppressed state. Sooner or later the system of despotism which holds Russia in an iron grasp must give way to a system more in accordance with the spirit of the age and the rights of man. If the Czar's ministers do not allow gradual approach to a system primarily for the benefit of the people by making timely concessions and instituting reform of crying abuses, then the system itself will be broken to pieces in some popular convulsion. This would be a terrible spectacle for the civilized world to witness, for the church and the state would both go down in the maelstrom of mad passion provoked by centuries of debasing and grinding oppression. The world stood aghast when absolutism was ground under the heel of the French people, and the lesson taught then should never be forgotten. When the consent of the government is taxed to the breaking point then comes chaos.

Mare Island's Bright Outlook.

There is a bright prospect that Mare Island will be made the great naval base its location and the importance of our interests in the Pacific Ocean warrant. San Francisco is the chief Occidental port of the Pacific and is destined to become the commercial entropot of the largest body of water in the world. No other nation has such an interest and such a frontage on the Pacific as the United States. We have more miles of coast line on the Pacific than we have on the Atlantic. We have a chain of island communications stretching across the ocean to the very shores of the Orient. The natural rendesvouz of our fleet and our commercial marine. Here we should have a naval base second to none in the world. The yard at Mare Island should be equipped with every appliance known to modern naval construction. It should have a dry-dock capable of accommodating the largest battleship afloat and its mechanical appliances should be equal to building all classes of fighting ships. Mare Island should be to the American navy what Portsmouth is to the navy of Great Britain. And there is now an encouraging prospect that it will be placed in its proper rank. The President has been here and taken a survey of the situation. His bold and comprehensive mind grasps the possibilities of the future. Secretary Metcalf in the Cabinet is not only a Pacific Coast man but is strongly impressed with the important relation Mare Island bears to our commerce and island possessions in the Pacific. Secretary Morton also looks at the Pacific Ocean from the Western point of view. Assistant Secretary Darling, a strong and capable man of Cabinet size, has visited the yard, and in an address to the merchants of Vallejo showed that he appreciates the importance of Mare Island as a naval base and constructive point. Senator Perkins and Congressman Knowland will leave no stone unturned in their efforts to induce Congress to provide the funds necessary to the proper equipment of the yard.

The State Department of Highways has issued an instructive pamphlet entitled "Oiled Roads of California." It gives a detailed account of the result of experiments in oiling in every part of the State, and is therefore an excellent guide for those contemplating the use of oil in highway improvement. The data has been compiled with care and the presentation is exhaustive so far as experiments in this State are concerned. It gives convincing proof that in the main oiling roads is a success, failures being due to local peculiarities of soil or improper application of the oil. Every roadmaster and county supervisor should send for a copy of this pamphlet.

The San Bernardino papers are quarreling over the provisions of a proposed new charter for that town. They would do better to devote their efforts to digging up new business for their advertisers.

The Ventura Free Press, the home organ of Senator Bard, says: "Outside of Los Angeles Frank Flint has nothing. Henry T. Oxnard may be able to gather in one sure vote just now. Knight has one or two northern votes, but Knight is not in the fight to win unless lightning should strike his way. His candidacy at the present time means an early grooming for the toga now worn by George C. Perkins."

Why not claim the whole works for Senator Bard at once? If that gentleman has a vote in the San Francisco delegation we are grossly misinformed. Apparently the Bard supporters have adopted the tactics of the coyote in their efforts to make themselves appear numerous. One of them will make more noise than a dozen supporters of some other candidate.

The Situation at Port Arthur.

Two days ago a Russian officer who claimed to have just escaped from Port Arthur told the correspondent of a Berlin newspaper that the fortress was in no danger of capture. He said Stoessel had 40,000 troops abundantly supplied with provisions and ammunition. He declared the Japanese would have to pierce three complete lines of fortifications before they could assault the citadel. A London Express correspondent now telegraphs that the situation at Port Arthur is desperate in the extreme. He says there are 20,000 sick and wounded in the hospitals and that the able-bodied portion of the garrison numbers not more than 2000. Food is abundant yet, he says, but ammunition very short. Note the wide discrepancy between these reports. In both instances they come from prejudiced sources. That Stoessel is in sorry plight all the attending circumstances denote, but his troops cannot be reduced to such a handful as 2000. The desperate attempts to run the Japanese blockade prove the urgent need for food and ammunition in the beleaguered fortress. The loss of fort after fort indicates the constant weakening of the garrison, while the slackening of the fire of the defenders is evidence that ammunition is short. Stoessel shows no sign of surrender. He fronts the enemy in grim desperation, silent, dogged and determined. No one can tell how long he will be able to hold out.

THE POLICE WILL BE PURGED

Oakland is agog over the startling discovery that several prominent members of its police force have been systematically stealing from the business houses along their beats which they were detailed to protect. A thorough investigation will probably reveal more malefactors as that is always the case. The department has good officers at its head with a good police commission back of them, so that the purging will be complete and the force will be far better for a rigid investigation.—Livermore Herald.

E. M. The dull aching in my back was just the common, ordinary form of pain in and around the kidneys, never severe enough to lay a man up, but recurring at intervals frequent enough and annoying to cause considerable discomfort. Doan's Kidney Pills positively stopped the last attack and since then I have made more than one of my friends and acquaintances aware of this fact, for I think a remedy which can be depended upon should be known to everybody.

CORPORAL KEEFE.

Oh, have you heard of Corporal Keefe,
The soldier lad who done
Hot work and was the bravest man
That fit with Wishington?

The red coat of a Britisher
Was such to Corporal Keefe
That nothing short of butchery
Afforded him relief.

'Twas in the fight at Monmouth Town
That Corporal Keefe done deeds
Which make the usual laurel wreath
Look like a bunch of weeds.

The wonders which he done that day
Have not been handed down
In all their glory, but there's one
That's chockful of renown.

He fit from early morn till three
P. M. that bloody day,
When General Washington rode out
And ordered him away.

The General, from his prancing steed,
Was looking at the fight,
And when he seen how Keefe let loose,
He said it wasn't right,

And shooting all around,
And piling up the helpless foe
In windrows on the ground.

He thought Keefe should be satisfied
With ordinary loss,
But when he seen him keep right on,
He put spurs to his hoss.

And riding closer to the scrap,
He dodged behind his shield
And yelled "For heaven's sake, Keefe, restrain your impetuosity and do not make a slaughter house
Of this here battlefield."

PRAISE FOR OAKLAND'S GUARDSMEN.

General J. C. Lauck Declares That Companies A and F, M. G. C. Are at Front in State Ranks.

A high tribute to Companies A and F, Fifth Regiment, National Guards of California, was paid this morning by Adjutant-General J. B. Lauck, N. G. C. As the representatives of Governor Pardee, he and Dr. D. D. Crowley, Surgeon-General on the Governor's staff, attended the ball given by the local National Guard Company A, in the Twelfth street armory last night.

"It pleases me greatly to be able to say that Companies A and F of the National Guard of California are A 1 in every respect," said General Lauck in an interview this morning. "They have certainly forged ahead and kept in the front very nicely. I must admit, also, that I am a little prejudiced in favor of these two companies, for the reason, no doubt, that I was once captain of Company A for two years."

In alluding to Dr. Crowley, General Lauck said:

"As Surgeon-General on the Governor's staff, he has done a great deal for the betterment of the National Guard. He has brought the Sanitary corps to a much higher degree of efficiency and is doing all in his power to maintain the high standard of the Guard."

Speaking in general of the prosperity of the National Guard, the distinguished soldier said:

"The National Guard is on a better basis than ever before, owing to recognition and aid extended through the Dick bill. Through this bill the State is allowed to draw on the United States arsenals for complete equipments, including uniforms. This, however, is charged against the State allotment.

"This brings me to another topic. The government bases its allotment on the number of representatives in Congress. I would like to see, and I am working for a change in this system. In States like Missouri and Nebraska, where they have a large number of representatives, the militia is awarded more than twice as much money as we are, although they have a much smaller number of troops.

CAMP AT ATASCADERO.

"In regard to the camp at Atascadero last August, I will say Governor Pardee and myself were highly pleased with it. I have a letter now under way to the War Department asking for a similar camp for next year. Of course everything depends on what Congress will do in regard to providing for such outlings."

THANKSGIVING SERVICES IN THE CHURCHES.

Thanksgiving Day was generally observed by the churches throughout the city, the attendances being large. Beautiful music marked the services and the decorations have never been excelled.

The day was opened with much ceremony at St. John's Episcopal Church. There was a celebration of the holy communion at 7:30 o'clock and again at 10:30 and an hour later an elaborate choral service was rendered.

Service at St. Paul's Episcopal Church opened at 10:30 o'clock, with morning prayer and a sermon by the rector, the Rev. Charles Thomas Walkley, who preached his first sermon to his congregation last Thanksgiving.

According to custom a Thanksgiving Eve service was held last night at the Church of the Advent, in which Episcopal rectors of Oakland took part. The Rev. Frederick W. Clampett, D. D., of San Francisco preached the sermon, Oakland Lodge No. 171 of Elks, of which the Rev. William Carson Shaw is rector, attended the services and preached a sermon there this morning.

St. Andrew's Episcopal Church opened at 10:30 o'clock with an elaborate musical and praise service. The Rev. O. St. John Scott, rector, conducted the services and preached a Thanksgiving sermon.

Holy Communion was celebrated at 7:30 o'clock at Trinity Church, the Rev. Clifton Mason, the rector officiating.

The Rev. Edgar F. Gee officiated at holy communion at 7:30 o'clock this morning at St. John's Episcopal Church. A choral celebration followed at 11 o'clock with a sermon.

There were three union meeting of the evangelical churches, embracing the down-town, East and West Oakland parishes. The downtown churches, including the First Congregational, First Presbyterian, First Lutheran, First Christian, First Baptist and First Methodist congregations met in the First Methodist Episcopal Church at 10 o'clock. The order of services was as follows:

Organ prelude; Doxology, creed, gloria; prayer by the Rev. Charles R. Brown; hymn No. 1087, the Rev. Paul Stewart; reading of President's proclamation, the Rev. E. E. Baker; offertory, "Give Thanks Unto God," choir selection; the Rev. T. A. Boyer; hymn, No. 1089, Rev. A. M. Shaw, benediction, the Rev. H. J. Vosburgh; organ postlude.

In the East Oakland district a union service was held in the Pilgrim Congregational Church, and the Rev. H. C. Boardman, pastor of the Tenth Avenue Baptist Church preached the sermon. The congregations which gathered there are the Tenth Avenue Baptist, the Brooklyn Presbyterian, the Eighth Avenue Methodist and the Pilgrim Congregational.

In West Oakland the Second Congregational, Chester Street Methodist, Union Street Presbyterian and Calvary Baptist churches met at Chester Street Methodist Church at 10:30 o'clock. The Rev. Madison Slaughter, pastor of Calvary Baptist Church preached the sermon.

CARMEN TO GIVE SOCIAL.

PLEASANT AFFAIR TO BE HELD NEXT WEDNESDAY NIGHT.

A novel entertainment is to be given by the Carmen's Benevolent Society next Wednesday evening at Gier's Hall. The affair is called a "Box Social" because each lady is to bring a box containing a lunch for two. These boxes will also contain the name of the fair donor, and will be auctioned off by Harry Boles, the proceeds to go into the treasury of the society. Each purchaser is to immediately open his prize and thus find the name of his partner for the grand march.

The march comes next and is to be followed by refreshments.

When the boxes have been emptied the gentlemen will select their partners for the waltz. Dancing will go on until a late hour.

At the meeting of the Benevolent Society last night Chairman Cotes of the committee on arrangements reported that all preparations were completed to make the social a success. Harry Boles and Mr. Sackey are his companions on the committee. The latter deserves credit for the promptness and completeness of its preparations.

CARPENTERS ASSEMBLE.

Local 36 of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners convened last night in California Hall. Robert Harlin, who was a delegate from the local to the carpenters' convention in Milwaukee, last month, returned Monday and was present at the meeting. He reported to the assembly and said that he had enjoyed a pleasant journey. His companion to the delegation, W. Wiand, had returned several weeks ago.

Little business of importance was transacted, and the members adjourned shortly after 10 o'clock.

UNION NOTES.

Tomorrow M. Gregovitch and P. C. Weber, respectively president and secretary of the Cooks and Waiters' Alliance No. 31, are to appear before Judge Melvin to show cause why they should not be enjoined from boycotting the Cottage Restaurant. The case was continued from last Friday and is likely to be again postponed.

SODA WORKERS.

The Soda and Mineral Water Workers and Wagon Drivers, Local 610, met in regular session last night in Teamsters' Hall. The meeting was short and unimportant.

TOO WELL FED

Clergyman Not Entirely Sure on That Point.

There is an inclination among the ladies to rather overfeed the Dominie sometimes, and while that indirectly helps the sale of Grape-Nuts, it offers no suitable excuse for the makers to encourage the practice.

A minister of Auburn, Indiana, writes. "Whether it was from irregular habits and more or less badly prepared food taken during some of my travels, or whether I have been too well cared for by my parishioners does not seem entirely clear, however, the fact remains that indigestion set in and after a period of hard work I came down with a genuine case of nervous prostration.

"It seems the trouble had been brewing for some years for several insurance companies had rejected me after careful examination by their physicians.

"I was urged to adopt Grape-Nuts and cream for my sole diet for breakfast and lunch. The request was urged so strongly that I concluded to follow the suggestion and to my surprise began to gain quickly in health and strength.

"I persisted in the use of this remarkable food and a wonderful result followed. I have entirely regained my health, have been examined by the physician of one of the most conservative insurance companies in America and have been accepted. It seems sufficient evidence of the change that has taken place as a result of the use of Grape-Nuts." Name given by Postum Company, Battle Creek, Michigan.

POINT RICHMOND GROWING.

RESULT OF CENSUS ORDERED TAKEN BY THE SUPERVISORS.

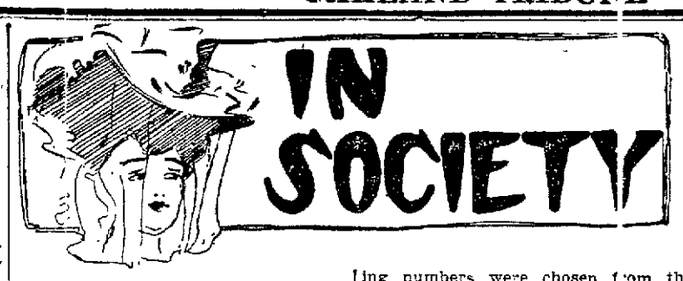

POINT RICHMOND, Nov. 24.—The census ordered by the Board of Supervisors prior to the incorporation of the town shows that the settlement that is embraced in the general name "Point Richmond" is now the largest town in Contra Costa county and that it has a population of about 5000 and is still growing.

Within the lines that have been set by the Supervisors as the limits of the proposed town of Richmond there is a population of 3500. These lines do not include the entire population of the district, for many important points have been omitted from incorporation because the corporations owning the properties did not wish to pay city taxes. It is estimated that at least 1500 people have been left outside of the proposed town, so that the population of the district is now fully 5000.

The petition for incorporation will come before the Supervisors at their next meeting.

MOST DELICATE OF INSTRUMENTS.

The authorities of Milan, to reassure the people about the safety of the Duomo, have fitted up a delicate instrument which registers the slightest movement. It shows oscillations produced by the wind, and the most imperceptible inclinations in the pinacles. When put in position it at once registered the periodical movement of the Cathedral through the action of the sun on its stone.

MISS PRATHER TO MARRY TONIGHT.

SHE WILL BECOME THE BRIDE OF GUY W. WATERBURY.

The interesting wedding of the month will be solemnized this evening when Miss Laura Prather will become the bride of Guy William Waterbury at her home on Filbert street.

The large drawing room where the ceremony will be performed has been decorated entirely in green; palms and woodwardia fern and garlands of smilax.

CAVE A BANQUET TO DARLING.

PLEASANT AFFAIR AT THE UNIVERSITY CLUB IN SAN FRANCISCO.

SAN FRANCISCO, November 24.—Some sixty-five members of the Zeta Psi fraternity, made up from the Iota chapter of Berkeley and the Mu chapter of Stanford, gave a banquet last night to Assistant Secretary of the Navy Charles H. Darling who is the chief officer of the grand chapter of the fraternity. The banquet was held at the University Club, on Sutter street and proved to be one of the most pleasant Greek society functions that has been held on the Pacific Coast in the history of the Zeta Psi.

F. H. Powers of the Mu chapter of Stanford presided as toastmaster. His first duty was to call upon Secretary Darling to respond to the toast of the grand chapter, and as the members of the fraternity in this section of the Republic are making a great effort to bring to California the grand body Secretary Darling's remarks were looked forward to with more than usual interest. The grand chapter is now in New England and respondin, to the toast Darling said that he would at all times advocate the bringing of the chapter to California, as he was convinced that by coming here it would have new blood injected into its veins that could not be done in any other way. The East would benefit from the move as would the West. The East had no doubt become rusty in running along in the one groove and as the Iota chapter had been the pioneer in promoting the fraternity on the Pacific Coast so he thought it should be the pioneer in this new move in bringing the grand chapter into new fields. The fraternity, as a whole, would reap the benefit.

Professor George E. Edwards replied to the toast of the Iota Chapter, and in a brief speech reviewed the work of the fraternity in the early days in this field.

Walter Tozier responded to the toast of the Mu chapter, and was followed by Collector of the Port of San Francisco Frederick S. Stratton, who spoke in reply to the toast of "Our Country." Professor Plehn made a short speech in reply to "Our Eastern Brethren," and then the toastmaking came to an end with a few remarks from Fred Duhring speaking for the ladies.

DR. THOMAS HAS RETURNED AND RESUMED PRACTICE.

PAUL SCHAFER VINDICATED IN NEBRASKA COURT.

Judge Sets Wife's Divorce Aside After She Had Married Herbert Beck.

OMAHA, Neb., November 24.—Paul Schafer, assistant postmaster of Oakland, who journeyed nearly 2000 miles to have the divorce granted to his wife in October, 1902, set aside, was yesterday completely vindicated by Judge Sears. For two years Mrs. Schafer has lived as the wife of Herbert W. Beck of Sacramento. Today's decision declares that the divorce decree granted to her by Judge Reed is null and void and the ceremony of marriage to Beck is of no effect, placing the woman in the position of a bigamist.

The decision is based on the fact that Mrs. Schafer was not a bona fide resident of Nebraska at the time, and that the evidence was perjured. Affidavits from prominent citizens of California prove that Schafer, instead of being a drunkard was an upright and sober man. Mr. Schafer feels elated over the decision, which wipes away the charge of being a drunkard and gives him equal rights to his two children who have lived all this time with their mother.

Asked last night what further action he proposed to take, Schafer said:

"I prefer not to say just now. I naturally feel elated over the decision, as it vindicates me entirely and gives me equal rights to my two little children, who have been in the custody of their mother all this time."

Throughout the trial Mrs. Schafer has been attended by her mother, Mrs. J. Hunt Goodwin of Sedalia, Mo. The two women, however, were not present when the final decision was rendered.

TURKEYS FOR ALL.

A PLEASANT MELLIN'S FOOD CUSTOM.

Two pleasant events took place the day before Thanksgiving at The Offices of Mellin's Food Company, 291 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, and at The Mellin's Food Works, 37 to 47 Central Wharf, when the Directors, Heads of Departments and Employes met together according to their time honored custom, to exchange felicitations over the completion of another successful year of kindly fellow-feeling and harmonious working together. Mr. Thomas Doliber, President and Treasurer of the Company, read the Thanksgiving Proclamation of the President of the United States and that of the Governor of Massachusetts; then, in behalf of the Directors, he expressed his appreciation of the employes' work during the past 12 months. He said that the increase in the business had been large and even beyond the expectation of the most sanguine, that all records had been broken and that he was much gratified with the results attained. He thanked all for their hearty co-operation in producing these results.

At the close of his remarks, Mr. Doliber, beginning with the messenger boy who had most recently entered the employ of the Company and then in order, ranged according to years of service, gave to each, with the best wishes of the Company a large, fat turkey. More than a half ton of turkeys was required. More than two-thirds of those who received turkeys have been with the Mellin's Food Company at least 10 years, while with some the years of service range as high as 19, 21, 26, 27 and 30 years.

ELLEFORD COMPANY SCORES A HIT

The Elleford Company opened at the Macdonough last night. At eight o'clock every seat in the spacious theatre was sold and late comers had to be satisfied with standing room. The members of the company acquitted themselves cleverly and gave to Oaklanders a performance at popular prices that has not been excelled in this city in many days. The scenic effects were good and the dressing of the various parts was particularly fine. Pietro Sosso, Miss Audu Duc, Chas. Blair and George Hernandez easily carried off the honors of the piece although all the other members did their respective parts to perfection. Taking all in all the Elleford Company gave a performance last night that can only be summed up as excellent and at the prices no one can say that they did not get their money's worth. To-night the same company will be seen in the comedy drama "Through The Breakers" and in a different bill at every performance during the remainder of this week including two matinees, one Saturday and one Sunday.

"A Chinese Honeymoon" will be the attraction next Monday and Tuesday nights.

Miss Gale will play "As You Like It" next Wednesday evening.

THE FLOWER GIRL.

At the age of six she has just had her first experience as flower girl at a wedding and has thereby accomplished an ambition of some years' standing.

"Do you know," she said after the ceremony was over and she had taken off the dress made for the occasion and put aside the large basket of flowers that she had carried so proudly up the aisle, "I would rather be a flower girl than anything else at a wedding."

"What! Rather than the bride?"

"Yes."

"But she is the chief person at a wedding."

"I know, but the bride can be a bride only once. The flower girl can be a flower girl just as often as she is asked to be."

Whereby it will be seen that this youngster is one of those who disbelieve in remarriage by the widow or widower and an enemy to divorce.—Philadelphia Press.

QUICKLY CLAIMS VICTIM.

APPENDICITIS CARRIES OFF 11-YEAR-OLD BOY IN TWENTY MINUTES.

Appendicitis claimed a quick victim last evening when Edward Ford, an 11-year-old boy was seized with his first pains and died twenty minutes later. The attack was so sudden that the child had expired before a doctor could arrive. The body was taken to the morgue where an autopsy showed that he was a victim of appendicitis and tumor of the stomach.

The lad lived with his parents at 1916 Eleventh avenue where they moved from Alabama a year ago. Apparently the boy was in good health until last night when he complained of feeling ill. No great anxiety was felt, however, until the boy's suffering became so great as to cause alarm. Dr. C. E. Curdts was hastily summoned but before he arrived on the scene the boy was dead. The body was removed to the morgue where an autopsy was held.

The suddenness of death in such a case has caused the physicians of Alameda county to take great interest in the matter and it is probable that a more thorough examination of the remains will be made by Coroner Mehrmann.

BERKELEY SUBURBAN NEWS UNIVERSITY

DISMISS EDITOR

W. T. Hale is Punished For His Criticisms.

BERKELEY, Nov. 24.—An expected sequel to the student rebellion against a new military rule at the University of California has come in the dismissal from college of William T. Hale one of the best known men in the University. He has been informed by President Wheeler that he has been suspended until August, 1905.

Hale is editor of the Daily Californian, a student publication which prints the news of university affairs and is controlled and edited by collegians. The editorial policy of Hale, with regard to the dispute between Captain Nance, military instructor at the university, and the senior class which objected strenuously to Nance's marching orders, is responsible for the young editor's suspension. The students' affairs committee considered his case a week ago, summoned him to explain his conduct, heard his explanations and defense and then recommended his suspension for a time that equals a college year.

The fate of fourteen other seniors still hangs in the balance, forty-eight of the sixty-three who were originally in disgrace having been placed on probation by order of President Wheeler yesterday on Captain Nance's recommendation. Each of the fourteen anxiously awaits news of the action to be taken in his particular case.

President Wheeler called Hale into his office and informed him of his fate. Later the president said: "Mr Hale is suspended upon the recommendation of the students' affairs committee, which considered that his two editorials preceding the disturbance on the campus were partly responsible for the trouble."

Professor W. A. Setchell of the students' affairs committee which considered Hale as on the campus during the riot and tried to preserve order.

Professor Setchell at Hale's hearing, cited Hale's editorial in which he referred to the military class as a military kindergarten and to Captain Nance as a "schoolmaster." In forming Hale that the entire tone of his editorial had encouraged the seniors to rebel as they did.

Hale talked a few days ago of carrying the cases of classmen who might be dismissed from college as a sequel to the riot to the academic senate and appealing to that court of last resort. He said to-day, however, that he has no complaint to make and will not contest the action of the university authorities. He resides at San Diego and will leave at once for his home. His place as editor of the Daily Californian will be taken temporarily by Joseph Loeb, now managing editor of the publication.

EARLY AGES.

Oscar Hersbey Issues Bulletins on River Terraces.

BERKELEY, Nov. 24.—The river terraces of the Orleans Basin in California are made to give up their secrets in a bulletin that has just been issued by Oscar Hershey of the geological department of the University of California. In telling of the river terrace problem, Hershey says:

"During the first few years of my residence in California the river terraces did not appear to present any interesting problems, but the deeper I delved into their history the more fascinating grows the study. They are important because they indicate organic disturbances and changes of climate, and because by means of them we will be furnished the best barometer of glacial events. It is possible that they may yield facts bearing strongly on the cause of the great quaternary glaciations. They furnish the basis for the classification of Quaternary land faunas. Further, the relics of early man in California may be referred to the different terraces and thus some idea gained of their relative ages. So far, in the Orleans Basin, I have failed to secure authentic evidence of the presence of man until after the completion of the forty-five-foot terrace."

Mr Hershey's bulletin outlines the bedrock geology and the geomorphogeny of the region, and includes a detailed description of the various terrace remnants with a summary of their characteristic features and differences. Concerning the age of the terraces, Mr. Hershey says:

"I arbitrarily reduce the assigned age of the highest terrace to 250,000 years. The portion of the Sierran Canyon above the 850-foot terrace is more than three times as deep as that below, several times as wide, and has characteristics indicating a much greater age. It is undoubtedly conservative to assign it a period of erosion not more than three times as great as the age of the highest terrace, or 750,000 years. This yields a total age for the Sierran Canyon of 6,000,000 years, and that figure also represents my idea of the probable length of the Quaternary era.

"The Sherwood Valley has the appearance of being at least five times as old as the Sierran Canyon, or 5,000,000 years. The geologists who are working the Pacific Coast country are inclined to assign much longer periods of duration to the Miocene and Pleistocene than do those whose field lies in the Eastern States. Recently Dr. A. C. Lawson has given as a possible duration for Quaternary time 7,751,000 years. However, he includes in the Quaternary the period of erosion of a series of 'high valleys' of the Upper Kern Basin, which valleys appears to me to be the correlatives of the Sherwood Valleys of the Klamath Region. My figure corresponding to his given above is 1,000,000 years."

LANTERN THIEVES

Street Contractors Complain of Petty Robberies.

BERKELEY, Nov. 24.—Complaint has been made to Marshal Kerns of the stealing of lanterns placed on the streets by contractors doing street and sewer work. Within the last month it is estimated that more than 600 lanterns have been stolen and all efforts on the part of the Police Department to capture the thieves have met with defeat.

One of the heaviest losers is the Lindgren-Hicks Company. They report the loss of more than 200 lanterns. Building contractors have also reported numerous losses of the same character. The thieving has been done so systematically that it is believed by the police to be the work of an organized band of crooks. It is believed also that the booty is being sold to San Francisco junkmen.

A peculiar feature is the extraordinary alertness of the thieves. Despite the fact that the contractors and even private individuals have employed special watchmen and detectives in some cases to protect the property, thus far not a single arrest has been made, in fact, there is no record that any of the thieves have been observed at their work.

NATIVE SONS GIVE LARGE DANCE

BERKELEY, November 24.—One of the most interesting social events of the season was the Thanksgiving Eve dance given by Berkeley Parlor No. 210, Native Sons of the Golden West. The affair was held in Odd Fellow's Hall and several hundred guests were in attendance.

Charles Edgar was floor manager and William Turner, assistant floor manager.

UNIVERSITY ARCHITECT EMPLOYED BY OAKLAND.

BERKELEY, November 24.—The Oakland Board of Education has employed John Galen Howard and Arthur Brown Jr. as consulting architects in the work of selecting plans for new school buildings.

SAVE BLOCK

Fred Suppiger and H. Tutt Extinguish Lively Blaze.

BERKELEY, Nov. 24.—Had it not been for the prompt action of Fred Suppeger and Harry Tutt, the building on Center street, known as the Gazette block, would have gone up in smoke early this morning. A fire broke out on the roof of the composing-room and was spreading rapidly when Suppiger, with the assistance of Harry Tutt, hastily connected a hose to a faucet and began playing a steady stream on it. At the end of fifteen minutes the danger was over, but not before the entire neighborhood had been aroused.

Suppiger noticed smoke coming out of the shingles on the inner side of the roof. Upon investigation, he found that the roof had caught fire from where the terra cotta pipe on the outside joined the stove-pipe. The dry shingles were already blazing merrily and realizing the danger, he called Harry Tutt, to his aid in running out the nose of a faucet in the rear yard. Hastily climbing upon the roof of the woodshed, the two turned the hose upon the burning roof and kept it there until every vestige of fire was out.

The families in the flats over the Gazette office and in the adjoining buildings were greatly alarmed by the clouds of smoke.

RECEPTION FOR OLD SOLDIERS

BERKELEY, November 24.—Lookout Mountain Post No. 839, is making extensive preparations to extend a warm welcome to the department commander, who will visit the post on the evening of Thursday, December 1. A committee from the Women's Relief Corps, in conjunction with a like committee, are working hard to make the reception a grand success. After an hour spent in social intercourse, when old war stories will me to old and the old war songs sung, the post, corps and invited guests will adjourn to the banquet hall, where a splendid supper will be served.

All old soldiers and visiting comrades are invited to participate. The post will open at 8 o'clock.

UNION IS BUSY

PRISON HIS SHELTER FOR THE WINTER

BERKELEY, Nov. 24.—The irrepressable tramp, "Shoestring" Johnson was taken in custody yesterday afternoon and the customary charge of vagrancy placed against him.

When the fellow was taken before Justice of the Peace Robert Edgar he was immediately recognized as an old offender.

"Put me in long enough so that I won't have to spend the winter in the cold," pleaded Johnson.

"All right, Shoestring," said His Honor, "three months in the county jail."

HUNT ON STATE UNIVERSITY GROUNDS

The men were released on depositing $20 bail and their weapon was held as evidence.

The following program was furnished by the vested choir of St Mark's Church: Processional hymn 193, "Come ye Thankful People, Come;" Thanksgiving anthem, "O Praise the Lord," chant by Chey in B flat; Gloria Patri, same; Te Deum, "We Praise Thee, O Lord;" Jubilate, "O Be Joyful in the Lord;" Oxford chant in D; hymn 196, "America;" offertory anthem, "Ye Shall Dwell in the Lord," Stainer in G; offertory sentence, "All Things Come of Thee, O Lord," in G; recessional hymn 413, "O God, Our Help in Ages Past."

STUDENTS DEPART FOR HOLIDAY VISITS

BERKELEY, Nov. 24.—All departmenas of the University of California were closed to-day and the Thanksgiving will extend over the remainder of the week. Hundreds of students have departed for portions of the State to spend the holidays with their families

HOLIDAY IN NEW YORK.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—More persons whose homes are in New York are spending the day in the country than ever before on a Thanksgiving, to judge by the records made in the various railroad stations. At one terminal alone about 650 trains were handled which carried about 70,000 passengers to New England and points up the State.

It is estimated that more than 400,000 turkeys were necessary to fill the demand in this city alone and most of this vast number were sold at thirty cents a pound.

MISSES WAGON

B. O. Burge Failed to Tie His Horse Securely.

BERKELEY Nov. 24.—Beverley Q. Burge, a painting contractor residing at 1901 Alcatraz avenue, is mourning the loss of a horse and wagon, which, he believes, was stolen from him in Lorin late Monday afternoon. Burge left the animal untied in front of a vacant lot, while he visited a customer. When he returned it had disappeared and thus far no trace of either wagon or animal has been found.

The police are inclined to think Burge is a victim of his own carelessness and that the animal wandered away, as Burge admits he did not tie it. The habit of leaving untied horses about the streets is becoming a serious annoyance and a menace to pedestrians as well as leaving openings for the operations of thieves.

TO RECEIVE NEW Y. M. C. A. SECRETARY

Under the direction of Mr. Jackson the association is taking on new life and prospects for the future are bright. J. N. Richer of the University of California has been secured to conduct the gymnasium work and will begin the organization of classes this week. ALAMEDA CHURCH SERVICES

Thanksgiving Sermons Preached--News From Encinal City.

ALAMEDA, November 24.—Union Thanksgiving services, participated in by nearly all Protestant churches of this city, were held this morning in the new First Presbyterian Church at the corner of Santa Clara avenue and Chestnut street commencing at 11 o'clock. The service was largely attended, the sermon being patriotic in character and delivered by Rev. Gilman Parker, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Rev. Dr. Parker spoke eloquently of the cause for gratification and gratitude to God of which this country had so many evidences during the past year, and of the high place it had taken in extending the influences of its beneficent polity throughout the nations of the civilized globe.

The address was a vigorous defense of the so-called imperialism of America, showing that a higher power was ruling its destiny and making its influence felt in the march of civilization and Christianity far-reaching.

A special musical program had been provided and a number of the pastors of other local churches participated in the services. The order of exercises was as follows:

Procession du St. Sacrement, organ; Doxology; Lord's Prayer, led by Rev. P. C. Macfarlane; Gloria—congregation standing; responsive reading, No. 21, led by Rev. F. S. Brush; "I Will Lift Up Mine Eyes," quartet; Scripture—Rev. L. Potter Hitchcock; Hymn 363; prayer—Rev. D. S. Reed; "The Angel's Song," quartet; collection for Girl's Training Home; Allegro, organ; "Thanksgiving Prayer," Duet for soprano and contralto; Hymn 366; sermon, led by Rev. Gilman Parker; prayer, by Rev. J. C. Robertson; Hymn 368; benediction, by Rev. F. L. Nash; Fantasia, organ.

In Christ Episcopal Church at the corner of Grand street and Santa Clara avenue, special Thanksgiving services were held at 10 o'clock, continuing until 11. Rev. William Norman Guthrie, the rector, officiated, assisted by Rev. Mr. Bugbee. In addition to a brief address there was a shortened morning prayer, special chants and lessons, while Hymn 481 and the national anthem were sung.

A special service of praise and thanksgiving will be held this evening at 7:45 o'clock in the German Lutheran church on Lafayette street, Rev. J. H. Witte, pastor.

MONEY COMES IN.

ALAMEDA, November 24.—The municipal purse strings, which have sagged badly for some time, are now indicating a more plethoric condition, due to the stream of gold which is coming into the treasury from taxpayers, at the rate of nearly $3000 a day. For four months civic funds were so depleted that many bills could not be met, and over $11,000 were ordered paid at the last meeting of the Board of City Trustees. The taxes become due on the last Monday in October, and up to Monday, the 21st inst, the amount collected was $42,624.70. Up to the corresponding date last year the sum taken in was $44,117.55. About one-fourth the entire amount has so far been paid into the office of City Treasurer Oswald Lubbock. The city taxes will not become delinquent until December 27.

PLEASANT DANCE IS GIVEN

AFFAIR IS UNDER AUSPICES OF THE S. P. R. S. I., COUNCIL NO. 5.

SAN LEANDRO, November 24.—Last night the ladies of the S. P. R. S. I. Council No. 5, gave a grand ball in U. P. E. C. Hall. The affair was a great success. The committee of arrangements deserves much credit for the completeness of their preparations and the pleasantness of the evening. The chairman of this committee was Mrs. A. Perry, the secretary; Miss Rita Cordoza, the treasurer; Miss Belle Roberts. In the refreshment committee the chief members were Mr. and Mrs. Silva and Mrs. F. Focha. They provided a Thanksgiving banquet at midnight at the Central Hotel, where roast turkey was much in evidence. The customary pumpkin pie was agreeably supplemented by ice cream.

As the hall has lately been superbly refurnished ornamented decorations were unnecessary, and only a few vases of flowers were placed about on convenient articles of furniture.

Under the direction of Floor Manager A. B. Lewis and assistants J. Olimpia, M. J. Frates and J. G. Terra the dancers enjoyed themselves. Bettencourt's orchestra furnished the entrancing strains of melody. Both Portuguese and American dances were executed. There were twenty-eight in all. The ladies of S. P. R. S. I. have an enviable reputation as entertainers and it did not suffer from last night's entertainment.

CHILD HAS FALL.

Yesterday morning the fourteen-months' old son of George Silva sustained a fall of about eight feet. It is not known just how the accident happened. The child was uninjured beyond a severe shaking up, which is remarkable in view of its youth. The family lives in the western part of town across the railroad track.

WANT A NEW TREATY.

ST. PETERSON, Nov. 24.—The Bourse Gazette revives the question of a new commercial treaty with the United States. The paper says it notes with satisfaction that the negotiation of commercial treaties forms a part of President Roosevelt's program for the coming administration and that the consummation is greatly to be desired between Russia and America. Commercial wars, the Gazette adds, are in the long run almost as costly and disastrous as armed hostilities. The paper says: Russia ought to be willing to meet any American overtures half way and that the result should be equally beneficial to both countries.

NEW CHURCHES TO BE BUILT.

BAY CITY, Mich., Nov. 24.—Thirty-five new churches are to be built within the next few months in the Bay City district of the Methodist Episcopal Church. One of them in Green Bush, Alcona county, and another in Biggs, Oscoda county, will be dedicated within the next thirty days.

BETTER SANITARY CONDITIONS.

SEVERAL RESIDENTS OF ELMHURST CONNECT RESIDENCES WITH NEW SEWER.

ELMHURST, November 24.—A large number of the householders are having connections made between their residences and the new town sewer. E. B. & A. L. Stone, the contractors, have no less than ten orders of that kind now in hand and are engaged in putting in the necessary piping with all possible despatch. The new orders are mainly for houses on Wall and Merchant streets and Jones and Bayview avenues

This is a good evidence that home sanitation is becoming appreciated in the town, and many more citizens are expected to come into line in a short time. The new sewer was completed about a month ago by the E. B. & A. L. Stone Company and is a great improvement to the town.

PERSONALS.

Yesterday morning J. J. O'Toole drove to Haywards on business. He reports a successful trip.

IT WAS MORGAN'S HORSE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—Alfred G. Vanderbilt upon learning that his horse High Tide which won a blue ribbon at the Horse Show last week and which was purchased from the proprietor of a farm in Port Chester, was rightfully the property of J. The whole affair grew out of a mistake in shipping the horses to Port Chester

"JOLLY THREE" TO ENTERTAIN

WILL GIVE A DANCE SATURDAY NIGHT IN UPPER FRUITVALE.

FRUITVALE, November 24.—A grand ball is to be given here Saturday evening, December 3. It will take place in Upper Fruitvale Hall and will be given by the "Jolly Three." They are three enterprising young men of the town, who are trying an original scheme in the line of entertainments. Their names are Lewis Shield, William Bridgman and William Broadway.

The decorations of the ball room will be gorgeous streamers and ribbons of many tinted paper, making a veritable canopy of bright colors overhead. The light will be furnished by many large Japanese lanterns suspended in strings from the ceiling. Henry Foster, the blind pianist, is to render dance music, assisted by a violinist, who has not yet been selected.

A large number of tickets has been sold and from all indications a very large audience may be expected. If expenses are met this time by the sale of tickets the "Jolly three" will provide other like entertainments in the future. The public is invited to be present and assist in making possible a series of similar pleasant evenings.

LOCAL NOTES.

Thanksgiving is the occasion of the homeward journeys of a large number of the students at Mills College. The Leona Heights car was filled to overflowing with happy lassie on every trip yesterday afternoon. At one trip it carried twenty suit-cases, as well as several valises and telescopes. It is estimated that one-half the students took advantage of the vacation to pay a visit to the folks at home.

James Smith of Grimes, in Colusa county, is in Fruitvale, being treated by Dr. J. H. Collins.

O. W. Carson has recently replenished and refurbished his shoe emporium on Fourteenth street.

GAME LAW IS VIOLATED

ILLEGAL SLAUGHTER OF DUCKS CONTINUES AT HAYWARDS.

HAYWARDS, November 24.—The illegal and contemptible slaughter of game, especially ducks, after dark is continuing unabated. Hunters are shooting ducks nearly every night in the Haywards marsh, making no attempt at concealment. Two residents of Haywards were out until midnight last Friday and openly claimed to have bagged thirty-five ducks. To all appearance the authorities are taking no interest in the matter.

There is another game law requiring that no one shall ship more than fifty ducks per day, and this is likewise broken with impunity. A certain party is said to have sent over two hundred of the birds to San Francisco in one day, merely taking the precaution to name several different persons as consignors. This has been going on for some time and no steps have been taken to punish the offenders. If these actions are continued it will not be long before the country roundabout is completely depopulated of game. Those who keep the laws are taken advantage of by the illegal hunters, and are made to suffer by the scarcity of birds.

FOOTBALL POSTPONED.

There has been an attempt made to organize a good football team, but many of the aspirants for gridiron honors have been unable to practice. The eleven is therefore in the embryo state and it will probably be some time before it will be ready for business. It had been hoped that a game might be arranged for today with an East Oakland team, but lack of practice made it impracticable. Frank Turner is the promoter of the football scheme, and it is to be hoped that his efforts will soon be crowned with success.

DEARTH OF TURKEYS.

The demand for turkeys exceeds the supply in Haywards. No live birds could be secured for love or money since Tuesday afternoon. There was just one dead gobbler for sale in town then, and he was sold yesterday morning. On account of the scarcity of the birds peculiar to this season, the death rate among the chickens is unusually large today. It seems that the producers under estimated the market for once.

NEWS ABOUT TOWN.

A new set of proprietors now controls the Hayward Review. It's former owners, S. T. and O. R. Morgan, sold out to S. C. Smith and M. J. Beaumont last Saturday, who took formal possession Monday morning.

Mrs. P. C. Morillo left Tuesday for Cloverdale, where her husband has taken charge of the H. S. Crocker ranch. They are old residents of this town, where he was a well known retail merchant.

SIERRA COUNCIL FLOURISHING.

On next Monday evening Sierra Council No. 1642, Royal Arcanum, holds its regular meeting. The prizes for the first two evenings' playing will be awarded, and after the close of the regular meeting the members will again play whist, it being the third in the series of games.

A matter of vital interest to the members is the approaching annual election of officers. The council is now in good condition, and if this state is to continue, it is important that the new regime shall be selected with great care. Entertainments for the members and their friends are now being considered and definite announcement will soon be made as to time, place and the nature of the program. Any members of the Royal Arcanum who may be visiting in Oakland on next Monday evening are cordially invited to attend the meeting, where a hearty welcome is assured them.

RATHBONE SISTERS' MASQUERADE.

The masquerade ball given by Calanthe Temple No. 6, Rathbone Sisters, last Friday evening, was a decided success both financially and socially. Characters of every conceivable description from the swell English dude down to the typical "hobo" were there. Bedella in all her glory amused the crowd immensely. The large hall was well filled and the orchestra under the direction of Professor Sapiro, rendered excellent music. Light refreshments were served.

The committee, with Brother Charles Hood as chairman, are to be commended on the efficient manner in which every detail was carried out. The party holding ticket No. 159 will please present the ticket at Woodmen Hall next Friday evening and receive the sofa pillow.

At the next regular meeting, November 25, a large attendance is desired, it being the time for nomination of officers.

BEN HUR COURT'S POVERTY SOCIAL.

The poverty social given last Friday evening by Ben Hur Court, No. 12, Tribe of Ben Hur, proved to be a very successful affair.

Some of the costumes were almost poverty-stricken enough looking to arouse the sympathy of even a hobo. The program had some unusual features and was very amusing an interesting.

After the program dancing, refreshments and a good social time occupied the balance of the evening.

Several candidates will be initiated at the next meeting.

CATHOLIC LADIES INSTALLED.

THE AMERICANS.

The order of the Americans is taking well with the people as was evidenced by the attendance at the first grand ball given by Lincoln Assembly No. 7 at Lorin Hall, South Berkeley, last Friday evening. A large number were present from Oakland and San Francisco, who thoroughly enjoyed the festivities of the occasion.

Director-General H. C. Lewis of San Francisco was present and was called upon by Dr. M. M. Rowley for remarks to which he responded in his usual clear and forcible style explaining in a brief talk the objects and plan of the order. The ball being such an unqualified success both socially and financially the committe have decided to give another at the same place on Thursday evening, December 15.

Oakland No. 2, will give a social dance Wednesday evening, November 30 at Pythian Hall, Twelfth and Franklin streets.

Garfield No. 12, of West Oakland, is now represented by Brother Brittain, who expects to initiate a large class next Monday evening at Fraternal Hall, Seventh and Peralta streets.

The San Francisco Assemblies are all doing well and another Assembly is in process of formation, which bids fair to become a large assembly in the near future. Dr. A. B. Hubbell is working on the charter list, which is a guarantee that the new assembly will have a firm foundation.

Santa Rosa No. 15 is doing well and will initiate several new members next Tuesday evening. The members of No. 15 are earnest and enthusiastic and all they need is a little time to build up a strong organization in the City of Roses.

MODERN BROTHERHOOD.

The Modern Brotherhood of America at its regular meeting, Tuesday night, had a pleasant time. The attendance was good. State Manager A. J. Weinert of San Francisco was present. A number of applications were presented by the deputy. A large attendance of members is desired at the regular meeting, December 12 as there will be a class to initiate. Another of those delightful whist parties will be held November 29 in the hall, 1060 Broadway. Whist players are especially requested to be present.

MACCABEE HIVE No. 14.

The joint whist tournament to be given by Oakland Hive No. 14 and Oakland Tent No. 17 will be held next Monday evening in the lodge rooms at the Maccabee Temple. Extensive preparations have been made by the members of the committee and it is expected that there will be many competitors for handsome prizes, ten in number, which are on display in the windows of Moran's clothing store, corner of Broadway and Eleventh streets.

A handsome sum was realized by the guards of Oakland Hive on the fruit cake which was raffled last Friday evening, after the regular review and Mrs. Kraskey, who held ticket No. 541 was the fortunate winner of the cake.

Tomorrow evening being the evening for the regular monthly initiation, it is expected that several candidates will be introduced into the order. All members are urged to bring in any applications they may have as promptly as possible, if they desire to compete for the prize offered by our Lady Commander to the lady presenting the greatest number of applications from now until the first of the year.

Friday evening, December 9, this hive will give a Show Ball Party; and on December 16 the guards of the hive will hold a whist tournament. Both of these events are to take place at the Maccabee Temple.

OAKLAND LODGE'S OPEN MEETING.

Oakland Lodge No. 123, of the Fraternal Brotherhood, held another of its enjoyable open meetings in Maple Hall last Thursday evening, there being present about two hundred and fifty guests. Excellent music was rendered by the Mancebo Orchestra, and refreshments were served between dances. During the course of the evening the prizes were distributed to the winners in the lodge whist club. Miss Giamboni was awarded the first prize, a handsome little Mission clock. Mr. Pritchard won a cut glass bon bon dish; Mrs. Morris a half dozen silver fruit knives, and Mr. King a hand-painted plate.

At the brief business meeting held in the lodge rooms previous to the open meeting four candidates were obligated. They will be initiated next Thursday evening. Several applications for membership were also received.

Tonight the lodge will hold a Thanksgiving party in Maple Hall, to which a large number of friends have been invited.

On Thursday evening, December 1, Oakland Lodge will hold its semi-annual election of officers. All members are requested to be in attendance on that evening.

The fourth annual ball of Oakland Lodge will take place on December 8, at Maple Hall. Several hundred invitations have been issued to this affair, which promises to be the crowning event of the holiday season. Special music has been engaged for this occasion, and various committees have been appointed to add to its enjoyment.

PORTER LODGE BANQUET.

The Odd Fellows of Alameda county who favored Porter Lodge No. 272 with their company on the evening of November 11, on the occasion of the fraternal visit of Pacific Lodge No. 155 of San Francisco, were very agreeably entertained by the Pacific Lodge second degree team, who exemplified the work of that degree upon the floor of the lodge in an impressive manner. A very intelligent and artistic rendition of the dramatic part of the degree was a feature which met with universal commendation of the brethren present.

Fully five hundred Odd Fellows were present from San Francisco and other places. After the degree was conferred addresses were made by Grand Secretary George T. Shaw, Past Grand Frank D. MacBeth and others, after banquet room, where a modest collation was served by the committee of arrangements. Past Grand W. T. Woods, acting as toastmaster, called on Noble Grand J. S. Mee of Pacific Lodge to respond to the toast, "Our Order." He ably and eloquently discoursed on the subject. Other interesting remarks were made by different brethren and the meeting closed with three cheers for Porter Lodge, proposed by Past Grand Macbeth, and three times three for Pacific Lodge, proposed by Past Grand Woods.

OAKLAND CHAPTER.

Oakland Chapter No. 140, O. E. S., held its regular meeting in Masonic Temple on Thursday evening, November 17. The hall was well filled with members and visitors, it being the closing session of the official year. The work was exemplified by the Worthy Matron and her staff of efficient officers in a perfect manner. The banquet hall was prettily decorated with flowers. Mrs. Alton C. Jackson, the worthy matron elect, presented in behalf of the corps of officers, to the retiring worthy matron, Mrs. John Laughland, a beautiful cut glass water bottle and a beautiful bouque of carnations. The worthy matron was taken by surprise and in a few chosen words thanked her officers, expressing a wish for their future prosperity and success for the ensuing year. Oakland Chapter has been honored by receiving the appointment of Mrs. Marion Clark as deputy grand matron for the sixteenth district, but who declined on account of ill health, and appointed Mrs. Will F. PIEDMONT LODGE NO. 172 KNIGHTS OF PYTHIAS

This lodge conferred the Knight Rank upon two esquires last Monday night. The officers and team of Oakland Lodge No. 103 conferred the rank in their usual efficient manner. Capt. The party left New York last Thursday afternoon. Its members since that time have seen parts of Philadelphia, Pittsburg, much of the St. Louis Exposition, Buffalo and Niagara Falls. THE MEN AND WOMEN

Knowledge of What Is Best More Important Than Wealth Without It.

It must be apparent to every one that qualities of the highest order are necessary to enable the best of the products of modern commerce to attain permanently to universal acceptance. However loudly heralded, they may not hope for world-wide preeminence unless they meet with the general approval, not of individuals only, but of the many who have the happy faculty of selecting, enjoying and learning the real worth of the choicest products. Their commendation, consequently, becomes important to others, since to meet the requirements of the well informed of all countries the method of manufacture must be of the most perfect order and the combination the most excellent of its kind. The above is true not of food products only, but is especially applicable to medicinal agents and after nearly a quarter of a century of growth and general use the excellent remedy, Syrup of Figs, is everywhere accepted, throughout the world, as the best of family laxatives. Its quality is due not only to the excellence of the combination of the laxative and carminative principles of plants known to act most beneficially on the system and presented in the form of a pleasant and refreshing liquid, but also to the method of manufacture of the California Fig Syrup Co., which ensures that uniformity and purity essential in a remedy intended for family use. Ask any physician who is well informed and he will answer at once that it is an excellent laxative. If at all eminent in his profession and has made a special study of laxatives and their effects upon the system he will tell you that it is the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually, when a laxative is needed, without any unpleasant after-effects. Every well-informed druggist of reputable standing knows that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative and is glad to sell it, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, because it gives general satisfaction, but one should remember that in order to get the beneficial effects of Syrup of Figs it is necessary to buy the genuine, which is sold in original packages only; the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs and also the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

BILL PREPARED TO DIVIDE THE COUNTY.

Merchants Exchange Has Completed Document to Be Sent to the Legislature.

The following bill is self-explanatory:

"Endorsed and approved by the Oakland Merchants' Exchange.

"An act to provide for the formation, organization, and classification of new counties, for locating the county seats, for the election and appointment of officers and for the adjustment and fulfillment of the rights and obligations arising between such new counties and other counties.

"The people of the State of California represented in Senate and Assembly do enact as follows:

"Section 1. New counties may, from time to time, be formed and created in this State from portions of one or more counties already in existence, in the manner set forth in this act, provided however that no new counties shall be established which shall reduce any county to a population of less than eight thousand, nor shall any new county be formed containing a less population than five thousand, nor shall any line thereof pass within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided. Every county which shall be enlarged or created from territory taken from any other county or counties shall be liable for a just proportion of the existing debts and liabilities of the county or counties from which such territory shall be taken, to be determined as hereinafter provided.

"Section 2. Whenever it is desired to divide any county or counties then existing, and form a new county out of a portion of the territory of such county or counties, a petition shall be presented to the Board of Supervisors of the county from which said new county is to be formed, in case said county is to be formed from but one county, or to the Board of Supervisors of the county from which the largest amount of territory is proposed to be taken for the formation of such new county in case said new county is to be formed from portions of two or more existing counties. Such petition shall be signed by at least one-fourth of the qualified electors of the county or each of the counties proposed to be divided, whose names appear on the great register or registers used at the general election held therein last preceding the presentation of said petition to the Board of Supervisors as herein provided; such signatures need not all be appended to one paper, but may be signed to several petitions which must be identical in form and when so signed the several petitions may be fastened together and shall be treated and presented as one petition. Such petition shall contain:

"A particular description of the boundaries of the proposed county to be formed; and a statement that no line thereof passes within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided;

"A statement of the population in such proposed county, as nearly as may be;

"A statement of the population remaining in the county or each of the counties from which such new county is to be established, as near as may be;

"The assessed value of the property in such proposed county, as shown by the last assessment roll;

"The name of the proposed county;

"A prayer that such proposed county be organized into a new county under the provisions of this act.

"There shall be attached to and filed with said petition the affidavit of three qualified electors and taxpayers within each county sought to be divided to the effect that they have read said petition and examined the signatures affixed thereto, and they believe that the statements therein are true, that it is signed by at least one-fourth of the qualified electors of each county sought to be divided, that the signatures affixed thereto are genuine and that each of such persons so signing was a qualified elector of such county thereto sought to be divided, at the date of such signing.

"Such petition so verified and the verification thereof shall be accepted in all proceedings permitted or provided for in this act, as prima facie evidence of the truth of the matters and facts therein set forth.

"Upon the receipt of such petition and affidavit the said Board of Supervisors shall forthwith fix a date to hear the proofs of the said petitioners and of any opponents thereto, which date must not be less than twenty nor more than twenty-five days subsequent to the receipt of such petition by said Board.

"Said Board of Supervisors shall also at the same time designate a newspaper of general circulation published in the old county or each of the old counties, but not within the proposed county, and also a newspaper of general circulation published within the boundaries of the proposed new county, if there be such, in which the said Board shall order and cause to be published at least once a week for two weeks next preceeding the date fixed for such hearing, a notice in substantially the following form:

NOTICE.

"Notice is hereby given that a petition has been presented to the Board of Supervisors of .... county (naming the county represented by the Board of Supervisors with which said petition was filed) praying for the formation of a new county out of a portion of the said .... county and .... county (naming the county or counties out of which it is proposed to form the new county), and that said petition will be heard by the said Board of Supervisors at its place of meeting (designating the city or town and the day and hour of the meeting so to be held) when and where all persons interested therein may appear and oppose the granting of said petition and make any objection thereto.

"Dated .....

"By order of the Board of Supervisors of ..... County.

"By ..... Chairman.

"Attest ..... County Clerk.

At the time so fixed for said hearing the Board of Supervisors shall proceed to hear the petitioners and any opponents, and may adjourn such hearing from time to time not exceeding fourteen days in all, and shall receive the proofs offered to establish or controvert the facts set forth in said petition, and on the final hearing of such petition said Board shall by resolution entered on its minutes determine:

"1st. The boundaries of the proposed new county, which boundaries shall conform to the boundary lines designated in said petition and the boundaries so determined by said Board of Supervisors shall be the boundaries of such proposed new county if it be created as herein provided.

"2d. Whether the said petition containing the genuine signatures of at least one-fourth of the qualified voters of each county sought to be divided as herein required.

"3d. Whether the establishing of the proposed new county will reduce the population of any county proposed to be divided to less than eight thousand.

"4th. Whether the proposed new county will contain a population of at least five thousand.

"5th. Whether any line of the proposed new county passes within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided.

"6th. The class of counties to which said proposed new county after its creation, shall belong, and the name of said proposed new county as herein provided.

"In determining the population of the proposed new county and the population remaining in any county proposed to be divided, after such division, the said Board of Supervisors shall assume that such population is five times the number of names of electors recorded on the great register used at the last general election held in each of the counties proposed to be divided, as residents in the territory of which the population is required to be determined.

"The determination of said Board of Supervisors upon such hearing shall be deemed final and conclusive as to the matters and facts hereinabove required by said Board of Supervisors to be determined.

"Section 3. If said Board of Supervisors determines that the formation of such proposed county will reduce the population of the remainder of any county to less than 8000, or that the proposed county contains a less population than 5,000, or that any line of said proposed county passes within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided, or that said petition does not contain the genuine signatures of at least one-fourth of the qualified electors of each county sought to be divided as herein provided, it shall pass a resolution in accordance with such determination, and thereupon no further proceedings in relation to the division of said county or counties shall be had on said petition, nor shall other proceedings be had in relation to the division of such county or counties for at least six months thereafter.

"If said Board of Supervisors determines that the formation of said proposed new county will not reduce the population of any county proposed to be divided to less than 8000, and that the proposed new county contains a population of at least 5000 and that no line of said proposed new county passes within five miles of the county seat of any county proposed to be divided, and that said petition contains the genuine signatures of at least one-fourth of the electors of each county sought to be divided as herein required, then said Board of Supervisors shall divide the proposed new county into a convenient number of judicial townships, road and school districts and define their boundaries and designate the names of such districts, and each of them; they shall also divide the proposed new county into five supervisorial districts to contain as nearly as practicable an equal population and number said districts; they shall also, if necessary for the purpose of election hereinafter provided for, change the boundaries of the election precincts in said old county or counties to make the same conform to the boundaries of the proposed new county.

"So soon as the Board of Supervisors shall have divided the counties affected as last hereinbefore in this section provided, but not longer than two weeks after its determination of the truth of the allegations of said petition as aforesaid the said Board of Supervisors shall order, and give proclamation and notice of, an election to be held on a specified day in the county or counties from which territory is proposed to be taken for the new county, not less than twenty-five nor more than forty days thereafter, for the purpose of determining whether such territory shall be established and organized into a new county, and for the election of officers and locating of a county seat therefor in case the vote at such election shall be in favor of the establishment and organization of such new county. All electors of the county or counties from which it is proposed to form said new county shall be entitled to vote at said election except as herein otherwise provided.

"Such proclamation and notice of election shall be published at least once a week for three weeks before holding of such election, in some newspaper of general circulation published in each county proposed to be divided, but outside of the territory of the proposed new county, and in a newspaper of general circulation published within the proposed new county. Such proclamation and notice shall require the voters to cast ballots which shall contain the words "For the new county of (giving the name of the proposed new county) Yes," and "For the new county of (giving the name of the proposed new county) No," and each voter desiring to vote for the establishment and organization of said new county shall stamp a cross (X) opposite the words "For the new county of.....Yes," in the manner now required by law in other elections, and each voter desiring to vote against the establishment and organization of said new county shall mark a cross (X) opposite the words "For the new county of ..... No," in the manner now required by law in other elections; provided, however, that ballots prepared for and used in that portion of the county or counties which it is sought to form into a new county shall also contain the names of persons to be voted for to fill the various elective offices designated in said proclamation for counties of the class to which said proposed county will belong, as determined by the Board of Supervisors as herein authorized and in the manner provided by law, except as herein provided, and also shall have printed thereon the words "For county seat" with a blank space left below said words and the voter shall write his choice for county seat in said space and the name so written shall be counted as the choice of the voter for such county seat, whether a cross (X) shall be marked after said name or not or whether said name be written in ink or pencil.

"The proclamation calling the election and the notice thereof provided for in this act shall be made and given exclusively by the Board of Supervisors with which is filed the said petition for the formation and establishment of such new county and all persons who are qualified electors of any county in which such election is to be held, not less than ten days next before date of any such election shall be entitled to vote at such election.

"The County Clerk of each county in which any election provided for by this act is to be held, shall furnish to each Board of Election therein the book of affidavits of registration for the respective precincts of such county and the copies of indexes thereof required by law, containing the names of all persons who were qualified electors therein ten days before the date of such election. All returns of election herein provided for shall be made to the Board of Supervisors calling such election.

"All certificates of nomination of candidates for the offices required to be filled at said election shall be filed with the County Clerk of the county represented by the Board of Supervisors calling said election, not less than ten days next before the date of such election.

"The provision of the election laws relating to the preparation, printing and distributing of sample ballots and the provisions of said laws relating to primary elections in this State shall have no application to any election provided for in this act.

"Section 4. If upon the canvass of the votes cast at such election it appears that a higher number of the votes cast are "For the new county of ..... Yes," the Board of Supervisors shall by a resolution entered upon its minutes declare such territory duly formed and created as a county of this State, if the class to which the same shall belong, under the name and style ..... county (naming it), and that the place receiving the highest number of votes cast at said election (naming it) shall be the county seat of said county until removed in the manner provided by law, and designating and declaring the persons receiving respectively the highest number of votes for the several offices to be filled at said election, to be duly elected to such offices and prescribing the amount in which such officers must execute official bonds where official bonds are required by law. Said board shall forthwith cause a copy of its said resolution, duly certified, to be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and from and after the date of such filing said new county shall be deemed to be fully created and the organization thereof shall be deemed completed and such officers shall be entitled to enter immediately upon the duties of their respective offices upon qualifying in accordance with law and giving bonds for the faithful performance of their duties, as herein required. The Clerk of the Board of Supervisors with which said petition was filed, as herein provided, must immediately make out and deliver to each of said persons so declared and designated to be elected, a certificate of election authenticated by his signature and the seal of said Board of Supervisors. All the officers elected at said election or appointed under this act shall hold their office until the time provided by general law for the election and qualification of such officers in this State and until their successors are elected and qualified.

"If, however, upon such canvass it appears that a higher number of votes cast at said election are "For the new county of ..... No," the said Board of Supervisors shall pass a resolution in accordance therewith and thereupon the proceedings relating to the division of such county or counties shall cease and determine and no other proceedings in relation to the division of said county or counties shall be instituted for at least one year after such determination. In that event each county shall pay the compensation of all election officers acting within its boundaries, and the county, the Board of Supervisors of which called said election, shall pay all other expenses.

"Section 5. At the election provided for in section three of this act there shall be chosen one Judge of the Superior Court of said new county whose salary shall be $3,000 per annum, payable at the same time and in the same manner as salaries of the Judges of the Superior Court of the several counties of the State are now paid; also such other State, county, township, and district officers as now are or may hereinafter by general law be provided for in counties of the class to which said new county is determined to belong as herein provided; provided, however, that all duly elected, qualified, and acting Supervisors residing within the prouposed new county at the time of the division of such county into Supervisorial districts as hereinbefore in Section 3 hereof provided, shall hold office as Supervisors in said new county for the remainder of the term for which they were elected on qualifying as Supervisors for the respective districts in which they reside, as said districts are organized as provided in this act;

"Provided also that all duly elected, qualified and acting Justices of the Peace and Constables residing within the proposed new county at the time of the division of such county into judicial townships as hereinbefore in Section 3 hereof provided, shall hold office as such Justices of the Peace or Constables in said county for the remainder of the term for which they were elected on qualifying as Justices of the Peace or Constables for the respective townships in which they reside, as said townships are organized as provided in this act; also provided that all duly elected, qualified and acting School Trustees residing within the proposed new county at the time of the division of such county into school districts, as hereinbefore in Section 3 hereof provided shall hold office as School Trustees in said new county for the remainder of the term for which they were elected on qualifying as School Trustees for the respective districts in which they reside as said districts are organized as provided by this act.

OFFICERS.

"Each person elected or appointed to fill an office of such new county under the provisions of this act shall qualify in the manner provided by law for such officers, except as herein otherwise provided and shall enter upon the discharge of the duties of his office within twenty days after the receipt of the certificate of his election. Each of such officers may take the oath of office before any officer authorized by the law of the State of California to administer oaths and the bond of any officer from which a bond is required shall be approved by any Judge of the Superior Court of any county from which territory was taken to form such new county. The officers elected or appointed under the provisions of this act shall perform the duties and receive the compensation now provided by general law for the office to which he has been appointed or elected in counties of the class to which such new county shall have been determined to belong as herein provided under the general classification of counties in this State.

"Section 6. "Section 7. It shall be the duty of the persons so elected to the office of Supervisors of said new county to meet at the county seat thereof within five days after all of them shall have qualified, and upon organization of said Board of Supervisors, it shall notify the Governor of the State of the organization of said county and thereupon it shall be the duty of the Governor to appoint three persons, one of whom shall be a resident and taxpayer within the new county, and no two of them shall be from any one county; the three persons so appointed shall form and be a Board of Commissioners. Such Commissioners shall within ten days after the notice of their appointment, meet at the county seat of the new county and organize by electing from their number a chairman, and also a secretary who must not be a member of said commission. Thereafter such commission may meet at such place or places as it may select. A majority of said commissioners shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business. Said commission shall have power to compel by citation or subpoena signed by their president and secretary the attendance of such persons and the production of such books and papers before said commission as may be required in the performance of the duties imposed by this act except the official records of any county or counties from which said new county was formed. It shall be the duty of the Sheriff of any county to execute in his county all lawful orders and citations of said commission; and for any so performed the Sheriff shall be allowed the same fees as are allowed to him for services in civil actions and all witnesses attending before said commission shall be entitled to the same compensation and mileage as is allowed to witnesses in civil actions; provided, that no witness shall be excused from attendance at the time and place mentioned in said order or citation by reason of the failure of the officer making such service to tender to such witness his fees and mileage in advance.

"Section 8. Said Board of Commissioners shall immediately after its organization ascertain the costs of the election held hereunder and apportion the same equally between each of the counties from which territory was taken to form such new county, and said new county, and shall also ascertain the indebtedness of each county from which territory was taken to form the new county, as the same existed at the time when the result of the election thereon was declared by the Board of Supervisors as hereinbefore provided, and also the total value of all property at that time belonging to each of said counties from which territory was taken, and situate within the limits of said old counties respectively. It shall also ascertain the assessed value of all property in each of the counties from which territory was so taken, according to the last completed assessment made for said county and also the assessed value under the same assessment of all property in the territory of the new county which shall have been taken from the county of which said new county was formed. They shall then find the difference between the amount of the indebtedness of the old county and the value of the property belonging to the old county at the date of the declaration of the result of said election as hereinbefore provided, and of such indebtedness exceeds the value of such property belonging to the old county, the new county shall pay to the old county a due proportion thereof, to be determined as follows: As said assessed value of the property in the old county is to the said assessed value of the property in the territory provided by this act to be incorporated within the new county from said old county, so is the amount of said excess to the amount to be paid by said new county to said old county.

"Said Board of Commissioners shall certify forthwith to the Boards of Supervisors of the new county and the old counties thereby affected, the amount constituting the due proportion of said excess payable by such new county to each of them; also the value of any property belonging to each old county at the time when said division took effect as hereinbefore provided, which is situated in the new county. The sum of said ascertained value of said last mentioned property added to the ascertained proportion of said excess which the new county is to pay to the old county, and its proportion of the expense of said election as aforesaid shall be an indebtedness from the new county to the said county, and the said property situated as aforesaid in the new county, shall upon settlement therefore, as provided in this act, become the property of the new county, and the old county shall pay the entire indebtedness against it, and the expense of said election shall be paid by the county calling such election, and any other county affected thereby shall pay its proportion thereof as hereinbefore provided.

"In case said Board of Commissioners shall find that the value of the property belonging to the old county, at the time the division thereof takes effect, as herein provided, exceed the indebtedness of said old county, the excess shall be apportioned between said old county and the new county in the proportion aforesaid, and if the portion of said excess payable to the new county does not exceed the value of said property belonging to the old county and situate in the new county, said portion of said excess shall be deducted from the value of said property situate in the new county as last aforesaid and the balance after deducting said portion of such excess shall be certified as aforesaid to the said Board of Supervisors together with the portion of the expense of such election apportioned to such new county, and shall be an indebtedness from the new county to the old county but if said portion of such excess is greater than the value of said property situate in the new county as aforesaid and belonging to the old county the value of said property last aforesaid shall be deducted from said portion of such excess and the balance shall be certified as aforesaid to the said Board of Supervisors and shall be an indebtedness from the old county to the new county, after deducting the portion of the expense of such election apportioned to such new county and payable to such new county and payable to such old county, and the old county shall pay the same. The proceedings in this section required to be taken in the ascertainment and adjustment of property rights and debts shall be had and taken as between said new county and each of the counties from which territory is taken to form said new county in the manner and at the ratio in said section provided. If upon the settlement between the old county and the new county as herein provided for, the new county shall be found to be indebted to the old county or either of the old counties, the money necessary to pay said indebtedness shall be raised by a tax levied upon the property contained in said new county and said new county shall pay the same; provided, however, that such payment by said new county may be made in not more than three equal annual payments, or by funds to be derived from the sale of bonds of said new county as may be made in not more than three equal annual payments, or by funds to be derived from the sale of bonds of said new county, as may be determined by a resolution of the Board of Supervisors of said new county adopted within one year after receipt of the statement from the Board of Commissioners as aforesaid of the amount or amounts due from it.

COMMISSIONERS.

"Section 9. Members of the Board of Commissioners provided for under this act shall receive a compensation of not to exceed $8 per day for every day they are actually employed under the provisions of this act together with their actual expense incurred in the performance of their duties, and the clerk of said Board shall receive as compensation for his services not to exceed $5 per day for every day that he is actually employed under the provisions of this act, all of which expenses, together with the reasonable expenses of stationery, postage, and incidental expenses shall be borne in equal proportions by the counties affected by such division including said new county, and the amounts payable by each county shall be paid by the treasurers of the respective counties after the same shall have been presented to and allowed by the Board of Supervisors as is provided by law for claims against any county.

"Section 10. After the creation of a new county as herein provided its officers shall proceed to complete all proceedings necessary for the assessment or collection of the State and county taxes for the then current year and all acts and steps theretofore taken by the officers of the old county or counties prior to the creation of the new county shall be deemed and taken as having been performed by the officers of the new county for the benefit of the new county; and upon the creation of the new county it shall be the duty of the officers of the old county or counties to immediately execute and deliver to the Board of Supervisors of such new county copies of all assessments or other proceedings relative to the assessment and collection of the current State and county taxes of property in such new county. Such copies shall be filed with the respective officers of the new county who would have the custody of the same if the proceeding had been originally had in the new county and such certified copies shall be taken and deemed as originals, and original proceedings in the new county, and all proceedings therein recited shall be taken and deemed as original proceedings in the new county, and shall have the same effect as if the proceedings therein stated had been had at the proper time and in the proper manner by the respective officials of the new county, and the officials of the new county are hereby authorized and directed to proceed thenceforth with the assessment and collection of said taxes as if the proceedings originally had in the old county or counties had been originally had in the new county.

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS.

"Section 11. The Superintendent of Public Schools of the old county or each of the old counties respectively shall furnish the Superintendent of Public Schools of the new county with a certified copy of the last school census of the different school districts in the territory set apart to form the new county, and draw his warrant on the treasurer of his old county or each of the old counties respectively in favor of the Superintendent of Schools in the new county, for all money that is or may be due by any apportionment or otherwise to the different districts embraced in the new county, out of his county and the auditor of each old county shall in like manner respectively draw his warrant on the treasurer of his county in favor of the auditor of the new county for all money that is or may be due by apportionment or otherwise to the different road and supervisorial or district funds, in the territory set apart to form the new county, out of his county, which said amounts shall be properly credited in both counties. And whenever in the formation of a new county, a road, supervisorial or school district has been divided the Board of Supervisors shall by resolution direct the treasurer to transfer the proper proportionate amount of the money remaining in the fund of such district to the treasurer of the new county.

"Section 12. The Board of Supervisors of any new county formed as aforesaid must provide suitable books and have transcribed from the records of the old county or counties all such parts thereof as relate to or affect property or the title thereof situate in the new county, and said records when so transcribed and certified as herein provided shall have the same force and effect as such original records, and the compensation for said services shall be fixed and allowed by the Board of Supervisors of such new county at not to exceed — cents per folio for transcribing.

"The Recorder of the old county or counties shall compare the books of such transcripts and attach to each volume a certificate under the seal of office of the correctness of the records therein copied, for which service of comparing he shall be entitled to charge not to exceed — cents per folio, and for each certificate not to exceed — cents per folio, and for each certificate the sum of not to exceed — cents.

"Section 13. All actions pending in the Superior Court of the old county or counties for the recovery of the possession of, quieting the title to or for the enforcement of liens upon, real estate lying in the new county shall on motion of any party thereto be transferred to the Superior Court of the new county, and thereafter shall be subject to the same laws as if said action had been originally brought in the Superior Court of the new county.

"All other actions or special proceeding pending in the Superior Court or courts of said old county or counties, which might have been commenced in said new county if said new county had been in existence at the date of the commencing thereof may in the discretion of the court in which it is pending and on motion of any party interested therein, be transferred to the Superior Court of such new county.

"Section 14. Wherever in this act publication of any notice is provided for and no newspaper of general circulation is published within the territory in which said notice is required to be published, notice shall be given by posting copies of such notice in at least ten public places in such territory for the same length of time said notice was required to be published.

"Section 15. The territory within the limits of any new county until otherwise provided by law shall constitute and continue a part of the assembly and senatorial districts to which the same belonged prior to such county division.

"Section 16. The Notaries Public of the old county who are residents of the territory embraced in the new county at the date of its creation shall hold their offices until the expiration of their terms and shall be recommissioned as Notaries Public in and for the new county until the expiration of their terms and the Governor shall from time to time appoint such additional Notaries Public for the new county as he may deem requisite.

FIRE AT COMPANY DANCE.

Flames Were Soon Extinguished and Dancers Enjoyed Themselves.

Fire last night broke out in the Armory of Company A, Fifth Regiment, N. G. C., on Twelfth street near Broadway, during the progress of the Forty-fourth anniversary ball of that organization.

The blaze had its origin in a gas jet which was left burning after the decorations had been completed.

The bunting and other decorative material first caught and in a twinkling the flames spread to every part of the hall filling the big room with dense smoke.

The fire department responded promptly to an alarm and soon put the flames out.

The dancers were unfaunted by the mishap and after several wagon loads of saw dust had been spread over the floor dancing was resumed.

The alarm was turned in about 5 o'clock when there were but few couples on the floor.

BRADBURY IS SUED AGAIN

SAN RAFAEL, November 24.—William B. Bradbury, the Corte Madera millionaire who has just passed through a five-days' trial in the Superior Court on a felony charge is again in hot water. This time James S. McCue, a fellow townsman of Bradbury, is suing for a restraining order which will prevent the aged millionaire from disposing of certain property of Corte Madera to which he holds a trust deed recently given him by McCue. McCue recently borrowed $3000 from Bradbury giving him a trust deed to the property mentioned. The money became due Saturday, November 19. McCue claims he thought it fell due on Monday the 20th, so on the following Monday he brought the money to San Rafael and deposited it with the Marin County Bank. On the same day he was surprised to see a trustee's sale of his property advertised in a Mill Valley paper. He seeks a restraining order to prevent the sale being carried out.

CIRCUS WILL BE HERE TOMORROW

One hundred new and startling acts is what the new Morris and Rowe Greater Shows advertise this season and as they have in the past fully fulfilled all promises made we can readily believe the assertion. Norris and Rowe are the most progressive and liberal managers before the public today and the reason is not difficult to find. They are young, energetic and above all, ambitious, and it takes these qualities to make the modern showman of large ideas. The public profits by this ambition for each succeeding season witnesses a public getting more and more for its money and at no increased cost of admission. This season a complete train of twenty cars is utilized to carry the vast army of acrobats, jugglers, equilibrists, riders, dens of cages of rare wild animals, the trained elephants, ponies, horses and all the material that goes to make up the modern big circus. Norris and Rowe will give two exhibitions at Oakland, Friday November 25. Show grounds, Thirty-eighth and San Pablo avenue.
